Man Robs Bag As He Hauls Mail Between P. O. and Station, Allegation

J. R. Abernathy, former superintendent of schools in Anaheim and late candidate for election as county superintendent of schools; and Charles R. Wheeler, postal clerk at Anaheim, were lodged in the county jail here this afternoon in connection with the alleged theft of $25,000 in currency from a mail pouch at Anaheim.

J. L. Findlay, aged about 50, was in the county jail here today, while Postmaster J. H. Whitaker of Anaheim declared Findlay, a messenger carrying mail to and from the Anaheim post office and the stations, had made a confession to having stolen $25,000 in currency from a registered mail sack at Anaheim, last December 27.

Whitaker stated the asserted confession was made in the presence of himself and Post Office Inspectors Jarvis and Lowe, both of Los Angeles.

Findlay, arrested early today, has implicated two others as accomplices, Whitaker said, but the postmaster declared his belief that the pair, whose names he refused to reveal, were innocent. One is an Anaheim postal clerk and the other an "outsider," Whitaker said he was informed.

In the purported confession, Whitaker added, Findlay was declared to have admitted breaking open a registered pouch while delivering it to a station, December 27, and to have taken twenty-four letters, containing a total of $25,000 in currency.

Arrest of the two men held implicated by Findlay was thought by Whitaker to be a possibility. Inspector Jarvis could not be located today for his version of the case.

Findlay, a married man, has a family at Anaheim.

Judge Advocates Spanking For Youthful Divorce Drama Pair

Della and Raymond Morris, of Brea, must wait until they "grow up" and "know their own mind" before they can think of getting a divorce, it was made known today.

Della and Raymond, who are not yet 18, were married when they were 15. Della's suit for divorce was denied by Judge Drumm with the comment that both the husband and wife should "be given a spanking and sent home."

The court hinted that he might ask for perjury warrants against the youthful husband and the girl-wife's mother.

It was shown at the divorce hearing that Raymond had made affidavit that he was 21 years of age in order to obtain a license. Della's mother, it was shown, had in an affidavit of "consent" sworn that her daughter was 16, the minimum age for securing a license

(By United Press Leased Wire) LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—With caps pulled low over their eyes, three young bandits shortly before noon today held up and robbed the Vermont and Francis Avenue branch of the Commercial National bank, escaping with $2,000 in currency.

Working with a coolness and precision of criminals aged in experience, the boys entered the bank, flashed guns and ordered the teller to turn over a pile of money on the counter.

One of them jammed the currency in his pocket, and the three rushed to a blue touring car of an expensive make parked outside, and sped away up Vermont avenue towards Hollywood.

A flying squadron of fifteen officers was rushed to the scene and joined Wilshire police in hot pursuit.

FRANCE FACING SPECIAL TAX

BRITISH LABOR LEADER WINS FIRST CLASH

(By United Press Leased Wire) LONDON, Jan. 15.—Labor was victorious in the first clash in common this afternoon when parliament convened after listening to the reading of the speech from the throne.

When the new house, with Labor represented by 190 members, occupying the front benches symbolic of the official opposition entered upon the business of forming committees, Stanley Baldwin proposed James Hope for the chairmanship of the ways and means committee.

Ramsay MacDonald, leader of the Parliamentary Labor party, was on his feet immediately. Declaring that the house had met "under exceptional circumstances," he said he believed it would be a "profound pity" if the house voted on Baldwin's motion.

Whereupon the premier withdrew his proposal.

As his majesty's address was read to the assembled houses there were crowded at the bar of the house of lords, whither the commoners are summoned for such occasions the 190 Labor M. P.'s, who expect this time next week to be occupying front benches with Ramsay MacDonald as prime minister.

Elbow to elbow with them were the more familiar figures of parliament, former Prime Ministers Lloyd George and H. H. Asquith, leaders of the Liberal party and their followers, and Stanley Baldwin and Robert Horne and the Conservatives whose day in power has just about run. There was a tendency to listen attentively to the king's words; it is an approval of the speech that the vote of confidence in Baldwin's government will be taken.

Among other foreign affairs touched upon in the speech from the throne, King George declared: "My ministers, together with the Dominion representatives, have been anxious to remove the difficulty regarding illicit importation of liquor into the United States and have made proposals for an agreement which is on the eve of conclusion. This should further strengthen the happy relations prevailing between the two countries and peoples."

Two men working at the former office were kept busy yesterday and the rush continued today. The men in charge there are W. Scott, who came here from the Los Angeles office, and J. Irwin, of this city, who has been employed temporarily to assist with the work.

F. B. Lentz has been placed in charge of registrations at the office of the Auto Club of Orange county.

Issue 310 Sets In Day

According to Elmer Heidt, manager of the Santa Ana branch of the Auto Club of Southern California, 310 sets of plates were issued yesterday to Orange county members of the club. According to A. J. Ralph, the county club has issued more than 100 sets up to noon today. He anticipated a big rush for the next few days. The club has 4000 sets.

Both clubs have authority to issue plates only for automobiles. They will receive application from truck owners but cannot issue plates. The two clubs will serve members only.

Penalty After March 1

The club representatives today called attention to the fact that motorists who have not renewed their licenses by March 1 will have to pay a penalty. The penalty is 100 per cent of the fee.

On electric pleasure cars the license is $3 plus a $10 fee established to compensate for the gasoline tax imposed on automobiles.

The suit was based upon the death of Blackford, following an accident in the Santa Ana canyon, near Brea, February 21, 1923. Blackford was said to have sustained a fractured skull when he was thrown from his motorcycle in a collision with Beckwith's automobile.

Charging Beckwith with responsibility for the accident, Mrs. Blackford sued for $15,000 as damages, together with $511 for funeral expenses, and $411.55 to cover medical expenses. She was represented by Attorneys Marks and Lauter and Collins of Fullerton, while Attorney A. E. Koepsel of Orange appeared for the defense.

SEEK TO END HEAVY DROP IN FRANCE

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The French Chamber of Deputies gave Premier Poincare's government a vote of confidence this afternoon, 388 to 189, on the question of drastic government measures to arrest the fall of the franc.

All taxes in France are to be raised twenty per cent and the severest measures of economy in public services put into effect, as part of the cabinet's program of financial adjustment to bolster up the franc.

The program, which also includes adjournments of all such projects as pensions and bonuses, will be introduced in the Chamber of Deputies Thursday.

The franc reacted today in anticipation of desperate government measures and gained a bit, being quoted at 22.42 to the dollar shortly before noon, compared with its close Monday at 22.76.

Measures to repress fiscal frauds, speed up collection of back taxes and repress speculation in national bonds and French securities, are to be laid before the Deputies.

(By United Press Leased Wire) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Federal Judge Frank S. Dietrich today ordered dissolved an injunction obtained two years ago by the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads restraining the state from collecting taxes from the companies under the King tax bill.

Taxes now totalling $9,000,000 are involved in the case.

Attorneys for the two roads recently concluded presentation of their case before Judge Dietrich. It was believed here that an attempt, at least, would be made by the roads to carry the suit into the federal supreme court.

CITY BOOKKEEPING CHANGE IS ORDERED

Alvin Johnston and company, local expert accountants, today were investigating departments of the city with a view to development of data necessary for installation of a new system of bookkeeping in the departments.

The city council, in executive session, last night definitely decided to institute a new regime in city bookkeeping and accordingly employed the accountant firm.

According to Mayor J. W. Tubbs, new books will be opened in each department as soon as proper books can be secured. He said that it probably would be necessary to have special ruling done on books to be used in some of the departments and that this probably would require some time.

Double-entry bookkeeping will be the new order, it was understood. The firm will check back records as far as possible, and particularly the bond accounts, for the purpose of developing a starting point for the new books.

Later an inventory will be made for the physical properties of the city, Tubbs said.

WIDE AREA SWEEP BY TREMORS

(By United Press Leased Wire) TOKIO, Jan. 15.—(9:40 a. m.)—Reports reaching Tokio on the extent of damage by this morning's earthquake today gave rise to belief that heavy losses have been sustained in the vicinity of Odawara.

The quake, which hit Tokio at 6 a. m. today lasted for three minutes and was the heaviest shock since the disaster of September 1.

An official announcement a few hours after the quake said there were "few deaths" in Tokio and Yokohama but that over 200 persons had been injured.

About 600 houses were demolished in Yokohama and Kamakura. The mansion of Prince Kuni partially collapsed.

Princess Is Safe

Neither the Princess Nagako who is to become the bride of Prince Hirohito soon, nor her parents were injured.

A few small fires were sent to Numa to inquire as to the condition of the emperor.

Tremors of less intensity continued during the morning as they did following the quake of September 1. Records indicate this morning's quake was about one third as strong as the previous disaster.

An extraordinary session of the cabinet was called to consider the situation.

Lines Are Down

Cable, telegraph and telephone communications have been interrupted and all train service stopped east of Kodzuo.

A few small fires broke out in Tokio immediately following the quake but they were quickly extinguished owing to foresight of the aviation bureau which had arranged patrols to guard and report fires in outlying districts in the event of earthquake.

Airplane patrols today were penetrating the districts farther away from Tokio.

The power station at Kawasaki was demolished.

The Tokaido railway apparently suffered heavily. Several trains were derailed.

Heavy damage to the railroads in the Chikagawa and Hirazuka regions were reported.

Volcanic Activity

Professor Tatsuro Nakamura, noted student of seismic activity and recognized as one of the world's leading earthquake experts, expressed the belief that the quake originated from volcanic activity at Mount Tanzawa in the Province of Sagami.

He expressed belief that probably enormous damage had been done in the vicinity of Odawara, the bay through which access to Tokyo from the sea is had.

It is believed the capital's water pipes, which have been restored since the September quake, were not broken.

Communication with Osaka was partly renewed at noon and train service between the two cities was expected by night.

It is believed the center of the new shock zone is at Tanzawa mountain, in the Kanagawa prefecture, six kilometers southwest of Tokio.

A WORD OF COMFORT
An artisan is entrusted with the making of some small part of a mighty machine. The designer alone knows the importance of each bit to be done. The individual workman sees only his little task. ## $20,000 IN Y PLEDGES PAID COMMITTEE

Officials of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. today expressed themselves as pleased by the response of local persons to the plea for prompt payment of pledges that became due January 1 for the building fund.

Approximately $20,000 has been turned over to the organization, leaving a balance of $28,000 to be collected on the third quarter pledges, E. B. Sprague, secretary of the building committee, said.

Plans now are being made for the carrying on of the final community effort to raise additional funds for the building. The tentative date of the beginning of this final campaign has been set as January 22 but cannot be definitely verified until Ernest Mogge and his assistants, who will direct the campaign, arrive.

According to Sprague the reason for this final campaign is that a more pretentious building has been erected for the association than was at first planned.

"When plans were prepared," Sprague said, "we found that for the money subscribed we could erect a building that would be adequate only for the present. Taking the future growth of Santa Ana into consideration the officials believed it would be only a short time until additions would be required."

"The building that could be erected for the sum already subscribed would not offer quite the accommodations we desired. The matter was laid before the people who had subscribed to the fund and others who were interested. We explained that for a slight addition to the expense, slight when compared with the benefits to be derived, a building, worthy of the organization, the effort expended in its erection, and the city, could be erected."

"It was the unanimous opinion that the most costly structure be constructed."

Wants Work; He Lets City Know Via Big Placard

E. S. Matheny today walking the streets of Santa Ana with a placard on his back bearing the words "I want work," has thrown some light on his novel scheme.

Matheny, who lives at 815 South Sycamore street, gained police permission to thus placard himself in his search for employment. He said that he recently came to this city from northern California where he was a house-to-house salesman. When he is employed he desires to bring his mother here to live.

"I have tried every scheme I could think of to find work," Matheny said, "and they all failed. I know that there is work here for me if I can only get in touch with the right man."

"I am willing to do any kind of work that does not require riding in automobiles. The last job I had required my riding more than 100 miles a day in an automobile, and I had to quit when my back became affected."

"I believe in advertising. If it pays to advertise merchandise why shouldn't it pay to advertise myself?"

Defendant Victor In Tractor Trial

George L. Bates, of Orange, having successfully defended himself against a superior court action brought against him by Pease, Kolberg and Company, of that city, today was in possession of a court judgment awarding him costs of suit.

The plaintiffs sought to recover approximately $1600 from Bates, alleging that amount to be due for a tractor, lumber and other material. Bates denied the validity of the claim.

The legal firm of Head, Rutan and Scovel, Santa Ana, appeared for the plaintiff at the trial in Superior Judge R. Y. Williams' court yesterday. Attorney L. F. Coburn, of Orange, represented Bates.

GERRARD NAMED AS LEADER OF MERCHANTS

The destinies of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association here were in new hands today as a result of the election of officers for that organization held yesterday in the office of the association. This meeting was scheduled for January 7, but postponed until yesterday because of the illness of P. S. Lucas, secretary.

Officers elected were: H. A. Gerrard, president; A. H. Paterson, vice president; B. E. Switzer, treasurer; P. S. Lucas, secretary; H. J. Forgy, attorney; W. V. Whitson, F. H. Taylor, Leo Hartfield and Claude Killen, directors.

The new board of directors appointed Whitson, Taylor and Hartfield as a finance committee. Whitson was named chairman.

Plans for the new year have not been definitely outlined, according to Lucas, but the directors have mapped a tentative outline of things to be accomplished.

Real Estate Deal Trial Continued

Failing of completion in the one day allotted to it, the trial of C. E. Walker's suit against Mary K. Clark, involving an exchange of real estate, had today been continued to February 11 at 10 a. m. in Superior Judge F. C. Drumm's court.

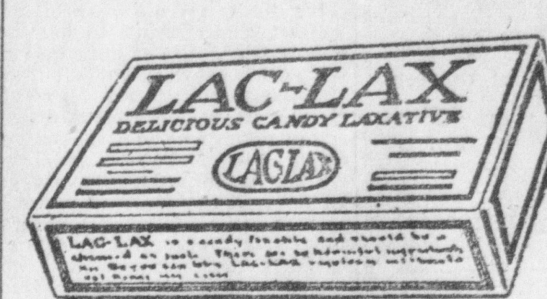

Walker, owner of a local theater, and also of an apple orchard at Yucaipa, brought suit against Mary K. Clark for enforcement of an alleged contract for the exchange of properties.

Walker claimed that an agreement was entered into, whereby the Clark residence property on South Ross street, this city, was to be traded for his Yucaipa property. Mary Clark refused to carry out her part of the agreement, it was alleged.

BADGE BANDIT ELUDES TRAP OF SHERIFF

(By United Press Leased Wire)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—Disappeared in the latest search for Harry J. Dunlap, notorious "badge bandit," Sheriff William Traeger was expected to return to the city today from Tijuana and other border points, where eludes yesterday carried him.

Deputies in the local office said they had heard nothing from the sheriff this morning, and took his silence to mean that Dunlap could not be found.

Armed with a special order permitting him to arrest Dunlap wherever located, Sheriff Traeger and three deputies rushed to the border yesterday, following a report that the badly-wanted suspect had been positively identified at Tijuana by a San Diego officer.

After an unsuccessful search there, the sheriff dispatched deputies to Mexico and on down the Lower California coast to Ensenada, hoping to overtake the fugitive.

U. S. Presbyterian Official Due Here

Men and women prominent in the Presbyterian churches of Orange county are expected to be present at the Santa Ana church tonight, at a 6:30 o'clock banquet, to greet the Rev. Lewis M. Mudge, stated clerk of the Presbyterian general assembly, and Dr. H. M. Robinson, secretary of the Presbyterian board of education.

The visitors came to the coast from Philadelphia to participate in the jubilee celebration at the First Presbyterian church at Los Angeles. Dr. Mudge, who is embracing the opportunity to visit the churches on the coast, will be the principal speaker here tonight.

LOAN FUND FOR CREDIT ASS'N IS PLANNED

Directors of the Orange County Credit association today had under consideration plans for the creation of a $50,000 Industrial Loan fund for the purpose of liquidating "frozen credits" of members. It was known today, following the annual meeting of the organization at St. Ann's Inn last night.

Approximately 100 business men of the county were present and gave approval to a suggestion of Robert L. Conway, manager, that such a fund be created. It was proposed to organize the fund by having members subscribe $100 units.

The plan would allow members to borrow from the fund the equivalent of accounts placed in the hands of the association for collection, the borrower to repay the loan in monthly payments.

Interest receipts from the fund probably would pay the operating costs of the association.

Following the discussion by Herbert Rankin on "Advertising the Association," voluntary contributions of $300 were made to a fund to be used in paying for a series of advertisements which will explain the service of the organization.

The report of G. W. Leo, secretary and treasurer, revealed that receipts during the year totalled $9,875.84, with disbursements of $9,574.53, leaving a balance of $471.31.

It was estimated that had accounts totalling approximately $45,000 had been turned over to the association by members during the year, with collections on such accounts totalling $25,601.95.

A. V. Storer, president of the California Association of Retail Credit Men's association, said the state association now represents forty bureaus with credit control over 10,000 merchants.

Dr. Merrill Hollingsworth, of Santa Ana, discussed the service and benefits professional men receive by proper use of the association.

Members of the board of directors elected J. C. Hayden, district manager of the Southern Counties Gas company, as president of the association. Other officers chosen were vice-presidents, Oscar Renner, Anaheim; Gurman Hoppe, Fullerton; R. J. Prescott, Huntington Beach; and Homer Larkin, Orange; secretary, Herbert P. Rankin; treasurer, J. K. Hermon; assistant secretary and manager of the reporting department, G. W. Leo; assistant treasurer and manager of the industrial loan fund, R. L. Conway; collection manager, D. H. Betton; manager Fullerton office, J. F. Conkey.

George Raymer, secretary of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce, acted as toastmaster. During the banquet Madame LeBlanc's trio of piano, violin and cello entertained with musical numbers. Selections from "Robin Hood" were presented by a sextette from the Orange County Choral Union cast.

Launch Probe Into Fatal Auto Crash

The inquest over the body of Benjamin Lamb, 35, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident on the El Modena grade, was scheduled to be conducted by Coroner Charles D. Brown at 2:30 p. m. today, at Winbiger's Mission funeral home.

Principal witnesses expected to testify at the inquest were L. G. Hoff, driver of the car in which Lamb was riding, and Manuel Guesman of Anaheim, driver of a machine which collided with the Hoff car on the grade, last Sunday.

Lamb, who was employed at the Harkelroad camp on the ranch, suffered a fracture of the skull in the crash. He died early yesterday at the county hospital.

INSURANCE CO. MAY BUILD ON NORTH MAIN

Another business building in the residence district on North Main street is tentatively scheduled for erection some time this year, it became known here today following the annual meeting of the Orange Farmers Mutual Fire insurance company.

Board of directors disclosed that it had completed negotiations for the purchase of the northeast corner of Eleventh and Main streets and would erect a two-story business structure as a permanent home for the organization.

As tentatively planned, there will be two rooms on the ground floor, one of which will be occupied with offices of the company, while the second floor will contain either office rooms or apartments.

The property was purchased from H. W. Cozad for $12,500. The lot has a frontage of 62 1-3 feet on Main street.

Yesterday's meeting held at G. A. R. hall, was the twenty-fifth annual session of the company. Reports showed that losses during the year had been nominal and that the increase in effective insurance had been phenomenal.

The old board of directors and officers were re-elected, as follows:

T. H. Smith, president; W. Dean Johnston, vice president; R. W. Jones, J. A. Smiley, F. C. Rowland, C. S. Holt and J. G. Lauer.

C. W. McNaught was returned as secretary and manager, and Miss M. E. Enderle, as assistant secretary, the latter's salary being increased 10 per cent. H. L. Hanson, assistant cashier of the First National bank, was retained as treasurer, and J. Lacy McColloch of Fullerton, was authorized to continue as representative of the company in the northern section of Orange county.

BIG SEARCH ON FOR MATE OF FILM STAR

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 15.—Ruth Renick, former leading woman for Douglas Fairbanks isn't the only person who wonders where "Major" Wellington N. Belford may be.

Police of Detroit wired Oakland authorities they wanted him very badly to explain a charge of embezzling $15,000 which stands against him in Detroit. Also, police mentioned a Mrs. Myrtle Harris of Detroit as having offered a $100 reward for his capture.

Then New York detectives wired that they were interested in him, saying he was charged with implication in a bank swindle at New Rochelle, N. Y.

But apparently it all is too late. For today police had to admit that the man they arrested Saturday on charges of having impersonated an army officer, had dropped from sight.

Belford was arrested in apartments at an exclusive hotel here which he was alleged to have shared with Miss Renick. Miss Renick declared Belford was her husband. Belford refused to admit. He furnished bail and disappeared.

ERROR MADE IN AD

In the advertisement of the Santa Ana Laundry which appeared in Monday's issue of The Register, an error was made in stating the price of their "Rough Dry" service. The price was given as "20 lbs. for $1.00" whereas this should have read "20 pieces for $1.00." On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, a special rate of 20 pieces for $1.00, with additional pieces at 2c each, is made on rough dry service by this laundry.

PRINCIPALS IN FILM SCANDAL IMPROVING

(By United Press Leased Wire)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—Mabel Normand, screen comedienne who featured prominently in the New Year's day party which culminated in the wounding of Courtland S. Dines by Horace A. Greer, chauffeur for the actress, is expected to leave for the hospital Thursday.

Well on the road to recovery from the appendicitis operation she underwent a few days after the shooting, Miss Normand will be taken to her residence, where she will, her physicians agree, soon regain her full strength.

Dines, with the bullet wound through his chest healing nicely, is expected to be able to attend Greer's preliminary hearing on Friday.

Possibility of the case never coming to trial is being rumored as the date for Greer's hearing approaches. Miss Normand has declared against any "white-washing" of the affair, and in favor of a full airing in court.

Dines is not under bond to assure his appearance, and there is talk of his possible departure for Denver before the hearing date.

JOHNSON RALLY CALL IS SENT CAL. G. O. P.

Predicting that the Republican voters of California will give United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson the same enthusiastic support that has been accorded him in every other campaign in which he has been a candidate, Senator Frank P. Flint, Los Angeles, today issued a call for a conference of Republicans of Southern California, to be held at the Alexandria hotel, Saturday, January 26.

"This is Hiram Johnson's home state," said Senator Flint in his call, "and I am convinced the Golden state will give Senator Johnson the warm-hearted support accorded him in other campaigns, both state and national."

Outlines Work Ahead.
"California will send to the national convention in Cleveland twenty nine delegates pledged to support the senator for the Presidency, and to keep fighting for him until he is nominated."

According to Flint, the Los Angeles meeting will be for a three-fold purpose: The organization of a Johnson-for-President club, the starting of a fight for the delegation pledged to the senior senator, and the nomination of the delegates who will go from this section to the Republican national convention in June.

"The ten men we select will be voted upon by the people at the presidential preference primary, May 8," said Flint, "and they will be the ones who will go to Cleveland."

"California will give its favorite son its endorsement in the coming campaign, just as it has in all past campaigns, for Californians have every reason to be proud of their great representative."

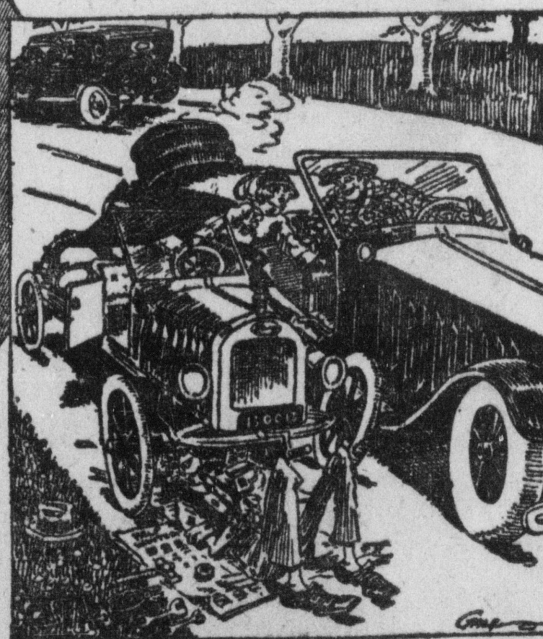

"Ever since he became governor in 1910, Hiram Johnson has been one of the leading and dominating figures in American public life."

"Every loyal supporter of Senator Johnson, from every walk of life, is urged to be present at the meeting at Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles, Saturday, January 26."

Johnson headquarters, Flint added, will be opened in Los Angeles within the next few weeks. The selection of a suite of offices will be made public later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Forgy, 204 South Sycamore street, have been grieving over the loss of their parrot, an exceptionally clever bird, which has furnished much entertainment for the family and their many friends.

The membership drive of the Buena Park farm center was in full swing today, following a meeting of that center last night when all details of the campaign were completed. Officers of the center were formally installed. This was said to be the first formal installation of center officers on record in the farm bureau here.

$20,000 IN Y PLEDGES PAID COMMITTEE

Officials of the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. today expressed themselves as pleased by the response of local persons to the plea for prompt payment of pledges that became due January 1 for the building fund.

Approximately $20,000 has been turned over to the organization, leaving a balance of $28,000 to be collected on the third quarter pledges, E. B. Sprague, secretary of the building committee, said.

Plans now are being made for the carrying on of the final community effort to raise additional funds for the building. The tentative date of the beginning of this final campaign has been set as January 22 but cannot be definitely verified until Ernest Mogge and his assistants, who will direct the campaign, arrive.

According to Sprague the reason for this final campaign is that a more pretentious building has been erected for the association than was at first planned.

"When plans were prepared," Sprague said, "we found that for the money subscribed we could erect a building that would be adequate only for the present. Taking the future growth of Santa Ana into consideration the officials believed it would be only a short time until additions would be required."

"The building that could be erected for the sum already subscribed would not offer quite the accommodations we desired. The matter was laid before the people who had subscribed to the fund and others who were interested. We explained that for a slight addition to the expense, slight when compared with the benefits to be derived, a building, worthy of the organization, the effort expended in its erection, and the city, could be erected."

"It was the unanimous opinion that the most costly structure be constructed."

Wants Work; He Lets City Know Via Big Placard

E. S. Matheny today walking the streets of Santa Ana with a placard on his back bearing the words "I want work," has thrown some light on his novel scheme.

Matheny, who lives at 815 South Sycamore street, gained police permission to thus placard himself in his search for employment. He said that he recently came to this city from northern California where he was a house-to-house salesman. When he is employed he desires to bring his mother here to live.

"I have tried every scheme I could think of to find work," Matheny said, "and they all failed. I know that there is work here for me if I can only get in touch with the right man."

"I am willing to do any kind of work that does not require riding in automobiles. The last job I had required my riding more than 100 miles a day in an automobile, and I had to quit when my back became affected."

"I believe in advertising. If it pays to advertise merchandise why shouldn't it pay to advertise myself?"

Defendant Victor In Tractor Trial

George L. Bates, of Orange, having successfully defended himself against a superior court action brought against him by Pease, Kolberg and Company, of that city, today was in possession of a court judgment awarding him costs of suit.

The plaintiffs sought to recover approximately $1600 from Bates, alleging that amount to be due for a tractor, lumber and other material. Bates denied the validity of the claim.

The legal firm of Head, Rutan and Scovel, Santa Ana, appeared for the plaintiff at the trial in superior judge R. Y. Williams' court yesterday. Attorney L. F. Coburn, of Orange, represented Bates.

GERRARD NAMED AS LEADER OF MERCHANTS

The destinies of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association here were in new hands today as a result of the election of officers for that organization held yesterday in the office of the association. This meeting was scheduled for January 7, but postponed until yesterday because of the illness of P. S. Lucas, secretary.

Officers elected were:
H. A. Gerrard, president; A. H. Paterson, vice president; B. E. Switzer, treasurer; P. S. Lucas, secretary; H. J. Forgy, attorney; W. V. Whitson, F. H. Taylor, Leo Hartfield and Claude Killen, directors.

The new board of directors appointed Whitson, Taylor and Hartfield as a finance committee. Whitson was named chairman.

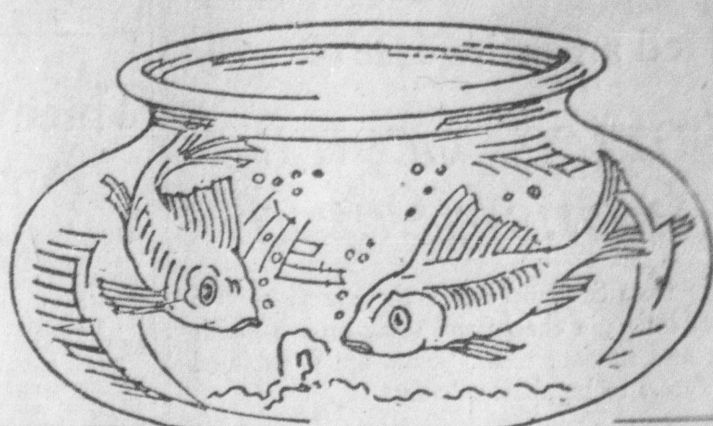

Plans for the new year have not been definitely outlined, according to Lucas, but the directors have mapped a tentative outline of things to be accomplished.

Real Estate Deal Trial Continued

Failing of completion in the one day allotted to it, the trial of C. E. Walker's suit against Mary K. Clark, involving an exchange of real estate, had today been continued to February 11 at 10 a. m. in superior judge F. C. Drumm's court.

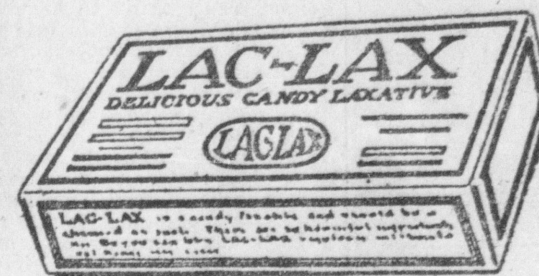

Walker, owner of a local theater, and also of an apple orchard at Yucaipa, brought suit against Mary K. Clark for enforcement of an alleged contract for the exchange of properties.

Walker claimed that an agreement was entered into, whereby the Clark residence property on South Ross street, this city, was to be traded for his Yucaipa property. Mary Clark refused to carry out her part of the agreement, it was alleged.

Political Periscope

Three Supervisors Of County And State Solons Must Race

It's time to polish up the old periscope. We'll wipe off the dust, burnish the brass, and thrust the foretop over the edge of the political parapet; we'll take a look around and see what we can see.

True, it may be a little early in the year, and there isn't much excitement among those who talk things over politically. In saying that, we aren't speaking of Calvin and Hiram and their little affair just now; we are talking about politics closer home, for a lot of full-fledged American citizens get a lot more kick and can work up a lot more sweat over an election for constable or supervisor than they can out of the election of a mere President or a common ordinary governor.

It's to be an off year in local politics. There aren't to be many offices sliced and thrown into the proverbial political pot that boils vigorously every once in awhile. Nearly all of the county officers are in office now for but one year of the four for which they were elected. They need not have a worry. It's so quiet for them personally that some of them may forget to vote on election day. True, County Clerk Backs has a whale of a job on his hands getting the voters registered and arranging the big doings that are to come off this year. But so far as his own candidacy is concerned, he has nothing of that sort to keep him guessing, though it must be said that Joe went through the last election quite like a jackrabbit covering squirrel holes on the mesa—and there isn't any danger of Joe forgetting to vote on election day.

But there are a few matters to be handled by the voters this year. Locally, we mean. For instance, we have Judge Drumm of Orange sitting on the bench before us. And there's a trio of supervisors, S. H. Finley, William Schumacher and Leon Whitsell. And we remember the important matter of electing a state senator and an assemblyman, to say nothing of a congressman.

Yes, indeed, it is time to get out the old periscope and lift its burnished mirrors to the daylight of his gladsome year known to us as he year 1924.

Judge Frank C. Drumm, we see at first glance, apparently has the race for superior judge all to himself. It will be remembered that the last legislature created a third superior judgeship for Orange county and that Drumm, of Orange, was appointed by the governor to fill the position. Under the law, the appointment holds good only until January 1, 1925. The office comes up for election this year, for the primaries in August and the finals in November. Judge Drumm has apparently made good with members of the bar, with litigants and with others who have had to do with the machinery of the county courts; so much so that it begins to look as though he is to be given a 100 per cent expression of approval at the 1924 elections.

Turn the brightened reflector of the periscope to the north. What's that dust we see?

Why, it's a delegation! Along about election time delegations get thicker'n fleas. They seem to pick on some man and flock to him as though by common consent.

Out of the vista to the north comes this startling conclusion: The delegations are swarming around S. C. Hartman, of Fullerton.

"We want you to run for assemblyman," is the tenor of their remarks.

It seems that Dr. C. D. Ball of Santa Ana, who represented Orange county in the assembly at the last legislature, is going to run again. He got certain things started up there that he wants to see through. He's on the ropes, and can strike out on the course he wants to follow without waiting to get used to the lay of the land. With these arguments presented by his friends, the periscope takes it for granted that Dr. Ball is a candidate for re-election.

It so happens that in this county are a number of men who are for Governor Richardson, first, last and all the time, and they are bent on sending a man to Sacramento who will play ball with the governor. They seem to be afraid that Dr. Ball, instead of playing ball on the governor's lot, will be on the other side of the fence and shying bricks over it.

We aren't saying how much truth there is in the supposition. Truth or not, it's a fact that these friends of Governor Richardson have started a campaign to get S. C. Hartman to run for assemblyman.

Glimpse these three—Finley, Schumacher, Whitsell—supervisors all.

Of the five members of the board of supervisors, two reach the ends of their terms. These two are Finley, Santa Ana, and Schumacher, Buena Park. There's hardly a rattle on the surface of their political seas, and if one may judge from appearances they stand a fine chance of going through to re-election without a campaign storm.

Whitsell, it will be remembered, was appointed supervisor to succeed N. T. Edwards when Edwards was appointed state highway commissioner. His political sea is as unruffled as can be. He, too, bids fair to be re-elected without having to ride out a campaign hurricane.

Congressman Phil D. Swing appears to be well entrenched. Surely, so far as Orange county is concerned he is in the best of favor. Whether he can get the Republican nomination without a contest cannot be foretold. There are rumors that Sheriff Byers of San Diego is being prodded by the San Diego interests who want a San Diego man in congress—for San Diego. The name Byers doesn't mean anything up this way except among a few officers of the law. That is, if it does, the meaning hasn't been distributed to the periscope.

There hasn't been a word said for weeks about the state senatorship. By common consent in this neck of the woods, the senatorship goes to Riverside county for the next term. By old time custom, the two counties have alternated the senatorship, and it seems likely they will continue to do so so long as they remain in the same senatorial district.

FOURTH DISTRICT.
More or less dismay was occasioned in P.T. A. circles of the city and district by the announcement that the Fourth district P.T.A. in its quarterly session at Huntington Beach last Saturday, took no action on the Sterling-Townner bill. Since the bill (originally known as the Smith-Townner bill and later as the Townner-Sterling bill) was drafted by the National Educational association and provides for the inclusion of a secretary of education in the president's cabinet to be on equal footing with other secretaries, together with other much-needed and wanted educational improvements, it is a measure very dear to the hearts of all educators.

Re-introduced in its new form to the present senate and house, the bill is being closely watched by educators. Mrs. J. N. Anderson, legislative chairman of the Fourth district P.T.A., introduced the question of the bill at Saturday's session and it was enthusiastically endorsed by the gathering which will continue to stand back of it in the future as it has done in the past.

HIGH SCHOOL.
Following the talk by R. R. Miller which will be the feature of the high school P.T.A. at the Y hut on the school campus Thursday night at 7 o'clock the hostess committee will preside at a social hour during which refreshments will be served.

Members of the committee include Mesdames Herman Smith, (chairman) F. W. Winslow, Manuela V. Budrow, J. Fields, E. V. S. Pomeroy, Miss Meta Daniels and Miss Alverda West. Mrs. Sallie Powell is president of the association.

Missionary Society

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the parlors of the First M. E. church, the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the church will hold an interesting meeting over which Mrs. Allie Fitz will preside.

Reports of the quarterly meeting in Los Angeles will be presented by Miss Davidson and Mrs. Horton Palmer will speak on "Annuities." Mrs. Baker will review the mission study book which in itself is sufficient to attract every member, according to those who have heard and enjoyed her masterly summing up of the chapters.

Women's Alliance

The Unitarian Women's alliance will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock where much business awaits the session. Election of officers will be held and reports of the Union alliance held last week in Pasadena will be given.

At 4 o'clock, there will be a meeting of the church board, called by the chairman, E. E. Tarver. This will be held in the parlors of the church.

Betrothals Weddings Receptions*Musical Tea Offers Happy Afternoon In Studio Home

Several Santa Ana guests were numbered among those who were entertained last Sunday afternoon at a delightful musical-tea which Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Seamans presented at their studio home in Yorba Linda.

The affair honored Miss Fayette Munro of San Francisco who appeared on the program of the afternoon as did Mrs. B. F. Morehouse of Whittier, her daughter, Miss Vivian Morehouse and Jose Sanchez, Yorba Linda vocalist for whom Mrs. Seamans played accompaniments.

Miss Munro, guest of honor, is an entertainer of rare ability, her musical readings, of which she is in almost every case author and composer, being especially delightful. During the war she was an entertainer overseas, appearing as "Dixie's Daughter." She has just returned from an extended trip to Japan and the Orient.

Miss Vivian Morehouse is quite a social favorite in Santa Ana as she is in her home city of Whittier. She is a frequent visitor in the home of Mrs. Ella Campau and her beauty and charm of manner are seconded by a delightful voice of richness and depth. With her mother as accompanist she added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon as did Mr. Sanchez whose tenor voice is winning him many laurels in Southern California.

In the dining room, Mrs. Seamans was assisted in pouring tea by Miss Nell Marie Remberg of this city and Mrs. B. F. Moore. Santa Ana guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Remberg, Miss Nell Marie Remberg and Miss Katharine Remberg while others included Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapman, the Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dierker, Mr. and Mrs. C. News Notes of Interest To Clubwomen*Pastor and Wife Are Genial Hosts to Board Members

An interesting event in church circles was the pleasant dinner which the Rev. H. G. Burgess and Mrs. Burgess presented recently when they entertained the members of the official board of the Richland avenue church together with the immediate members of their families.

The affair was staged in the church bungalow where tables were arranged with immaculate linens and adorned with flowers. Covers were placed for nearly forty guests and with the Rev. Mr. Burgess and Mrs. Burgess presiding and the dinner served by a very young girl, the occasion was a most happy one.

Miss Ada Burgess and a coterie of her friends, were the efficient young "serving maids." Following the appetizing dinner and a happy social hour, all adjourned to the church where a formal board meeting was held with District Superintendent Crist presiding over the conference.

Business Women's Club

A most interesting luncheon meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was held yesterday at St. Ann's Inn, although the attendance was a trifle smaller than usual on account of the prevailing illness.

The tables were made very attractive with clusters of fragrant sweet peas and the girls were surprised and delighted with a veritable banquet with turkey as the piece de resistance.

The next meeting was announced as the evening meeting of the month and all present signified their intention to be present. Dinner will be served at 7 p. m., and the committee in charge promises a delightful program.

The speaker for yesterday was Mrs. Alice Fessenden Peterson, well known writer, who told some of the interesting features of a trip into the jungles of the Panama, where she spent three months with her daughter, Mrs. William T. Lailor, who was stationed at Gatun in the canal zone. Mrs. Peterson is now gathering her stories to be published in book form.

Mrs. Peterson said that she made several trips into the jungles, and told interestingly of some of the insects she saw there. The "house-cleaning" ants are a wonderful institution for the housewives, as they come at stated intervals and clean the habitations completely of all insects and bugs, with which the canal region teems. She also told of the "leaf-cutting" ants, which make it impossible to grow any citrus trees, as they cut a round circle from the leaves. Mrs. Peterson says that there are no flies nor mosquitoes in the sanitary zone, which the government has established. Pools and standing water have been treated with oil, so that no eggs can be hatched.

The speaker describes the sloth, which having no palms to its feet, travels on the branches of the trees upside down. She told interesting features of the terrible snakes and crocodiles, and of iguanas, which the natives eat and say it tastes like chicken.

The wonderful orchids, which grow in the jungle, are of great brilliancy and marvelous odor. One which is pure white, is named "the Holy Ghost" as its heart is in the shape of a dove with a beak and tiny eyes. A vivid scarlet blossom bears the cognomen, "the seven deadly sin."

Mrs. Peterson closed her excellent talk with the reading of a sketch of the meat-eating plant which she has generously given The Register for publication and which will be printed in an early issue.

Royal Neighbors

Only the usual routine of business occupied the attention of Royal Neighbors who met last night in M. W. A. hall. All plans were secondary to the important event of installation of officers which will be held jointly with the Mod. era Woodmen at the hall tonight at 8 o'clock.

Installation will be an open one with all friends and members of the families of either Woodmen or Neighbors, invited to attend.

THOUSANDS HAVE 'TOBACCO STOMACH'

The excessive use of tobacco is one of the most common causes of indigestion and stomach inflammation. Whether you smoke or chew makes little difference. The highly irritating juice of the weed is swallowed with the saliva, often setting up an acute inflammation of the stomach which may end in gastritis or chronic stomach inflammation.

"Tobacco stomach" produces a number of distressing symptoms—first a loss of appetite, then an occasional attack of indigestion. Perhaps your food sours at times and you notice a peculiar burning in the stomach. These attacks occur with greater frequency as time goes on. Finally, if neglected, the condition becomes chronic, resulting in loss of flesh and general poor health.

Smith Bros' M. A. C. Stomach Tonic has proven wonderfully successful in all forms of digestive trouble. It is sold on a positive guarantee of money back if the first bottle fails to relieve stomach inflammation or dyspepsia. The very first dose should convince. Nothing on earth like it. You can get a large bottle for $1.25. C. S. Kelley Drug Store will supply you. (Mail orders accepted.)

Ohio Visitor Will Be Feted Frequently In California

Everything has been in a flurry of preparation at Passmore ranch, the beautiful country estate of the Dr. John D. Thomases near Olive, where Mrs. Thomas will today welcome the arrival of her only sister, Mrs. John Cole, from Springfield, Ohio.

Mrs. Cole will make an indefinite stay in southern California where in addition to her brother-in-law and sister, she will be welcomed by her young son who for several years past has been with his aunt, Mrs. Thomas.

Many social affairs are being planned for the Ohioan, and a round of gayety will mark her introduction to Orange county. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. John R. Porter already have cards out for two bridge luncheons, to be given on January 22 and 23 at Passmore ranch, when Mrs. Cole will be introduced to their friends.

Smaller luncheons, together with dinner parties and a series of teas are also among the festivities planned by the happy hostess for her guest's entertainment.

Music Section

It was today declared by members of Ebbs' Music section that their January meeting, held yesterday with Mrs. John Wehrly at her Spurgeon street home, was one of the most interesting of the year when "Primitive Music" was the theme of the program arranged by Miss Edith Patten.

Miss Patten opened the program by an excellent paper on the origin of music which she stated, existed 4000 years before Christ but only in its most primitive forms, its highest form at the time of Christ, she declared to have been perfected by the Greeks to whom the Italians later looked for inspiration.

Primitive musical instruments she described and their manufacture, the drums fashioned from the skins of animals, the horns and other instruments of simplest construction, with which our ancestors made their peculiar music, devoid of all which we associate with the art except melody and rhythm.

Miss Dresser then introduced the theme which was done by means of an interesting talk illustrated by charts and by songs and old Hebrew chants given by Mrs. Herbert M. Sammis.

Miss Dresser's travels offered many interesting bits relative to the subject, as for instance when she told of exploring the ruins of the home of Nero, that ancient Roman emperor who, with no voice whatever, required his subjects to listen to him sing.

Explorations in a Hopi Indian kiva were also described and the weirdly plaintive notes of an Indian melody which Miss Dresser had transcribed, were played on the piano.

Mrs. Sammis included in her illustrated numbers, plaintive Hebrew chants such as "By the Rivers of Babylon" and "Lament of the Children of Israel Crossing the Red Sea." Later she sang the traditional Hebrew song, "My God Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me?" to the piano accompaniment of Miss Ruth Armstrong.

An interesting item of the program was the tracing of the familiar college song, "We Won't Go Home 'Till Morning" from its origin during the crusades when in that of 1061 it was introduced to the Crusaders by Sir Godfrey de Bouillon and thus carried to the far corners of the earth, later being used in France as a cradle song. Community singing of the old favorite brought the program to a close.

Mrs. James Clark, Miss Preble Drake and Mrs. Jay C. Hamill as hostess served tea and wafers as the members and guests lingered to chat over the interesting details of the afternoon.

Ladies' Guild

Tomorrow afternoon in the parish rooms of the Church of the Messiah, the Ladies' guild of the church will hold its first meeting directed by the new president, Mrs. W. H. Haddon and her staff of officers.

The session will begin at 2:30 o'clock and Mrs. Haddon will present her ideas for the year's work and receive suggestions from members regarding activities of the guild for the coming year. Heretofore the organization has devoted much time to sewing for the Bishop's guild of Los Angeles, less, adding in the making of 350 little dresses for poor children of the city, among other items. It is anticipated that this work will be continued this year as well.

Associated with Mrs. Haddon in greeting the members tomorrow will be Mrs. Alice Harris, first vice-president; Mrs. C. P. Osborne, second vice-president; Mrs. William Whitehead, secretary and Mrs. C. S. Dunphy, treasurer, all newly elected officers, while greeting them as the hostesses of the afternoon will be Mrs. James L. Allen and Mrs. Mary Balshaw.

Following the business meeting, an informal social hour will be enjoyed during which Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Balshaw will serve tea.

Newspaper Writer Is Home From Stay In Toledo, Ohio

Her scores of friends in this city have welcomed the return of Mrs. Eugene Robinson from a four months' stay in the East where she was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Amrhein of Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robinson arrived last week, happy to be in the southland again although her winter on Lake Erie with its manifold winter sports, and among the friends of her girlhood, was a delightful one. Mrs. Robinson was much feted during her absence as the visit was the first she had made to her home city since, as Florence Madelon Amrhein, she followed a year of war-work in Washington with a trip across the continent which brought her to Santa Ana.

In this city Miss Amrhein became identified with The Register where she had charge of the society page and where she met her fate in the person of Mr. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Robinson and connected with the First National bank. Their marriage was an event of August, 1923 during a visit to this city of Mr. and Mrs. Amrhein.

The Robinsons' pretty home at 1802 Spurgeon street has harbored a second bride and groom during Mrs. Robinson's absence from the city. Mrs. Warren Hilliard (Miss Arlie Cravath) have occupied the house since their honeymoon trip in the autumn. Mr. Robinson has made his headquarters at the home of his parents during his wife's absence.

TWO DISAPPOINTED AS INDIA TRIP OFF

With preparations made and all plans definitely completed for leaving here for San Francisco to join a party of scientists scheduled to depart from that port January 18 for a year's observations in India, William Pilch and Donald Smith, both of this city, today received the disappointing word that the expedition had been indefinitely postponed.

The expedition was being organized by Carl P. Winther, naturalist and ethnologist, of Los Angeles, for the purpose of taking motion pictures of the swamps of Borneo and wild animals in India. The films were to be used exclusively in colleges and schools as educational features.

Thirty-one persons were to be included in the group, among them scientists from the Smithsonian Institute. The Santa Ana men had anticipated a year of travel and experiences.

Pilch is the son of A. B. Pilch, deputy internal revenue collector for Orange county.

Big Attendance of President's Friends Is Seen

Referring to a recent poll of a local church organization as indicating that Calvin Coolidge is popular with these Santa Ana voters, J. S. Smart, one of the signers to a call for a meeting tonight for organization of a Coolidge-for-President club, said that he anticipated a large attendance at the meeting, to be held at the city hall at 7:30 o'clock.

According to reports, 245 votes were cast in the straw vote, the result being as follows: Coolidge, 154; Ford, 33; Johnson, 21; McAdoo, 18; Mrs. Harding, 4; scattering 15.

He anticipated the presence of Coolidge supporters from Anaheim and Orange, Smart said, adding that Judge L. F. Coburn of Orange would be one of the speakers here tonight.

Smart emphasized the statement that women may become members of the club, and he urged their attendance.

MAC SMITH LEADS BIG GOLF TOURNEY

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—Too much wind has ruled many a golf golfer. The rules of that sport decree that talking is extremely bad etiquette—and yesterday the best players in the California open championship turned in some poor scores, due to air disturbances.

MacDonald Smith, San Francisco, is preparing to go out again today and better his 68 of yesterday. Smith proved himself superior to Sarazen, Havers, Ockenden, Kirkwood and all the rest by "playing the wind."

"I was not hitting my shots. The man who was not hitting his shots in that wind had no right to expect better than I got," Willie Hunter remarked after the afternoon round. Which statement tells the story of the play on and through the greens.

Funny thing about that 17th hole on the Los Angeles Country Club course; it proved the debacle of the best of 'em. Ockenden, Kirkwood, Fred Wright, Captain Webster, Chick Fraser, and "Scotty" Armstrong could have had permission to use strong language on the 17th had they wanted it, for they all dubbed a seven or worse.

On with the slaughter and perhaps today's results will further humiliate the crack entrants.

FIRE FUND LACK HITS COUNCIL

TRUSTEES PLAN PAVING, CURBS ON SO. MAIN

Paving of the east side of South Main street, from the present end of the full-width pavement to Edinger street, and installation of a combination curb and drain on the west side of the street from McFadden street south several blocks, was under consideration today by the city council.

The drain condition on the east side of the street had been called to the attention of the board by W. O. Hill, whose property at the corner of Main and Hobart streets has been damaged by flood waters from the street.

To Open N. Sycamore. With adoption by the city council of a district map and an ordinance declaring intention of the body to execute the work, definite steps were taken for the opening of North Sycamore street from Fifteenth to Seventeenth street. The assessment district for the opening will embrace all property within half a block, on each side of the proposed new street.

P. M. Krauch's resignation as a member of the police force, effective today, was accepted. The application of W. J. Jenkins for appointment to the force was filed. The city attorney was directed to prepare proceedings creating a district for the opening of Pacific avenue from Eighth to Eleventh streets. A petition for the opening was filed by L. E. Martin, the petition representing 68 per cent of the frontage on the proposed street.

Delay 17th Street Action. Two street lights were ordered in on Willets street, their location to be designated by Street Commissioner Nat H. Neff.

An ordinance was passed declaring intention of the council to open South Sycamore street from the south line of the Julia A. Lathrop junior high school property to Borchard street.

A petition for widening Baker street from Eighth to Santa Clara avenue was referred back to the petitioners for more signatures. The petition, signed by the owners of 71 per cent of the frontage, was referred back because O. V. Noble declared that additional signatures could be procured.

Parties interested in the paving of West Seventeenth street from Ross street west to the city limits, were told that no further action would be taken on the petition until after the board of supervisors has acted on a petition for paving that street west from the city limits to Westminster. One of the largest property owners on the city petition signed with the proviso that his signature would not be effective unless the street outside the city was paved.

Radio Supplies at Gerwings.

Movement On To Pave Santa Clara

A movement today was on foot to secure a petition for paving Santa Clara avenue east from Bush street to Lincoln street. It was disclosed to the city council last night when some of the property owners on the street filed a protest against the work.

The petition has not been presented to the council, but City Attorney Z. B. West Jr. revealed that such a petition was in circulation.

It was suggested by members of the council that the improvement should be extended east on Santa Clara to connection with the Grand avenue paving. The protest was filed for reference.

APPOINT INSPECTOR OF CITY PLUMBING

Men who do plumbing work in Santa Ana on and after February 7, will have to know their business, for starting with that date master and journeyman plumbers must pass a satisfactory examination on their qualifications before they may secure a license for operations here. It was shown here today.

The new plumbing ordinance becomes effective on that date. The city council last night appointed H. O. Crowe plumbing inspector, at a salary of $175 per month and with $25 additional allowance for use of his automobile. It also authorized Mayor J. W. Tubbs to appoint an examining board, before which applicants for license must appear and take an examination. The board will be composed of the city health officer, Dr. J. I. Clark, a master plumber and a journeyman plumber.

One member of the board, in declaring that the new order would eliminate incompetents engaged in plumbing here expressed the belief that a similar examination would be required of men engaged in sidewalk work.

Applications for appointment as plumbing inspector were filed by Henry Cope, E. E. Wood, Crowe, B. M. Shallenberger, J. F. Murphy, C. E. Stokes, J. H. Newland, E. J. Barger and Roy Davenport.

HELD IN TIRE THEFT
Roy Peters, charged with petty larceny in connection with the alleged theft of a bicycle tire, was held in the county jail today in default of $200 bail, pending trial before Justice J. B. Cox January 21 at 3 p. m. Peters pleaded not guilty to the charge when arraigned today.

TAX MONEY CURBS ADDITION OF MEN

The bugaboo of an inadequate tax rate to develop sufficient municipal departmental operation funds bobbed up again and slapped the city council in the face last night when Claude L. Killen, fire commissioner on the council, asked ten additional men appointed for the fire department.

A desire on the part of the commissioner and Fire Chief John Luxemburger to increase the efficiency of the department was halted when pencil and paper were requisitioned and the revenue of the fire fund was figured out.

According to the figures developed, the portion of the $1 tax rate apportioned to the fire fund will not raise sufficient money to permit an exclusively full-paid department.

No relief was promised for at least two years, unless the city council should decide to appoint a city assessor and divorce that part of the city work from the office of the county assessor. Meantime two new fire stations here will be opened with the present force of sixteen salaried men.

In an informal discussion of financial matters, the opinion was expressed by trustees, some members of the city body that, were the assessing done by a city assessor, the valuations could be made higher and sufficient money could be raised even under the maximum rate of $1 permitted by the state law.

OPEN WOMEN'S CHURCHMEN ON VISIT TO BE DINED HERE

With five high-class vaudeville numbers scheduled for their benefit, with dancing and cards on the program and with the beautiful $5,000 women's room, recently completed, to be thrown open at 8:30 p. m., officers and members of Santa Ana lodge No. 794, B. P. O. E., today declared an unusual treat is in store for scores of women relatives of Elks here tonight.

"The entertainment committee," said Secretary W. W. Wassser, "has arranged an unusually fine program for Ladies night, when relatives of Elks will be our guests in the lodge rooms and in the women's quarters in the basement."

"According to the committee's plan, the entertainment in the lodge room will begin about 8:30 and will last an hour or more. Upon completion of the vaudeville program arranged by the entertainment committee, Elks and their women relatives and companions will repair to the new women's quarters, in the basement."

"Here refreshments will be served, with dancing and cards in reserve for those who wish to enjoy themselves in this manner. At this time the new kitchen, dining room and club facilities arranged for women will be exhibited to our guests for the first time."

The new quarters, Wassser explained, will be available for the use of the wives, sisters, mothers and other women relatives of Elks. It will afford an ideal meeting place for groups desirous of staging card engagements and other entertainments.

GAS COMPANY FACES WAR IN LONG BEACH

(By United Press Leased Wire). LONG BEACH, Jan. 15.—The city council is expected today to authorize the construction of a municipal gas plant as the result of the war between the city and the Southern Counties Gas company which led to the arrest of seventeen employees of the gas company yesterday when they were tempted to lay gas mains in the city streets.

The city has been negotiating with the gas company for some time for the purchase of its plant, and city officials claim that the gas company has acted in bad faith by applying for a franchise to lay additional mains, while negotiations were still going on.

All permits previously granted by the city to the gas company for the laying of lines have been revoked by the council.

Catlin is in the receiving hospital today suffering from probable fatal injuries sustained yesterday when a car he cranked while it was in gear, jumped forward and struck him in the chest. Police Surgeon Jack Renfrew found that one of his ribs had been forced through his chest and that he had also received internal injuries.

Occult Oil Bunko Case Pair in Jail

With their preliminary hearing scheduled for January 23 in Justice Walter Hanby's court, Los Angeles, R. H. L. Noaks, and his wife, Lottie Noaks accused of an oil swindling scheme growing out of "occult oil finds" on the J. J. Mueller or orange grove near this city, were today being held in jail at Los Angeles.

Noaks was the leading figure and his wife an alleged accomplice in oil promotion activities which formed the basis of a grand larceny complaint by Hilla Vachs, Hindu woman, who complained that she was swindled of $4,000 by Noaks after her asserted occult powers had "divined" oil underlying the Mueller orange grove.

Julie Stroud, writer, living at Laguna Beach, also said to have invested $2,400 in Noaks' alleged scheme to develop oil on the Mueller place.

Oriental Oranges Facing Pest Ban

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 15.—As a result of finding Mandarin oranges infested with citrus conker aboard the steamship Takaoa Maru at San Francisco, a ban on the entry of that type of fruit from the Orient will be placed by the United States authorities, predicts G. H. Hecke, superintendent of the state department of agriculture.

YOUTHS SETTLE FEUD LIKE MEN

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—No longer do the kids of Greenwich Village resort to street fights to settle their disputes, for the Greenwich House, 27 Barrow street in the section which developed Gene Tunney, light-heavyweight champion, has instituted a new kind of settlement work which promises a successful future.

Recently under the direction of Carney Hyman, physical director of the settlement, a boxing show was held at which youngsters ranging from seven to 15 years of age settled their street feuds in a 16-foot ring. All ring equipment used in regular bouts, including padded gloves, towels, trainers, judges, lights, timekeepers and the gong were on hand.

Barney Hyman acted as third man in the ring after several youngsters had diplomatically declined that honor. Mike Rabino, a violin instructor, and Henry Cate, champion flyweight of the National Guard, served as judges.

The first bout produced the Wagner twins, Joe, six, and Jim, five. The brothers settled all family differences, with Jimmy capturing second place.

Kid Brady from West 11th street and Young Durkin of West 10th street, fought for the flyweight championship of the village, honors going to the latter after an extra round was necessary to decide the winner.

The crowd booed the decision with all the disgust of a regular fight crowd.

Kid Bayonne, known as the Tiger of Thompson street, was worsted by Young Lamere, otherwise the Wild Bull. Thompson street was vindicated for this defeat, however, when Chris Wagner of Greenwich House won a victory over Kid Chesty of the Boys' Club on Avenue A.

In the next bout Kid Lefty of the Boys' Club met Kid Lefty of Greenwich House. The bout was billed as the champion flyweight contest and was won by Reed on a technical knockout.

Johnny Clegg, representing the Greenwich House, succeeded in making his opponent, "Silver Dollar" of University Settlement, look like the proverbial 30 cents.

The main bout brought together Jack Duffries, University Settlement, and Sol Presto, Greenwich House. The bout was fast and went to Duffries.

Girls of the Village occupied a special reserved section and joined the male rooters in cheering their favorite.

Miss Elsie McCormick, one of the settlement workers, attended and expressed herself as pleased with the bouts. More will be held in the future.

Lanstrum of Helena, publisher of the Montana Record-Herald, has been nominated by the Republican central committee to be Republican national committeeman for Montana. The resolutions expressed approval of the "sanity and statesmanship" of our president, Calvin Coolidge.

"Miss America" Declares Tanlac Wonderful Health Giving Tonic

Miss Campbell in "Miss America" crown which she has won on two occasions. Photograph by Atlantic Photo Service.

Miss Mary Katherine Campbell, twice proclaimed "Miss America," has taken TANLAC and endorses it in a statement recently given to the women of America through International Proprietaries, Inc., distributors of this great tonic. In this statement Miss America declares that Good Health is the basis of all Beauty, and advises women who would be beautiful to "first find good health."

Her complete statement as given is as follows: "I consider it a great privilege to be able to tell the thousands of women everywhere what a great tonic TANLAC is. Health is the basis of all beauty. Without good health, one is apt to be run down, nervous, underweight, high-strung, anemic. Indigestion drives the roses from a woman's cheeks and robs her of that radiant quality of womanhood that is her beauty."

"I have taken TANLAC and I do not hesitate to say that it is a wonderful health-giving tonic. It has brought relief and good health to many women, and with good health one may have a measure of beauty that will overcome shortcomings in face and figure."

"Rosy cheeks, sparkling eyes, a well-rounded figure, a lovable disposition, go hand in hand with good health. To those searching for beauty, I would say—'First of all, Find Good Health.' The TANLAC treatment has proven itself a boon to womanhood, and I recommend it."

Miss Campbell has written a booklet on Health and Beauty which may be secured by filling out the coupon below.

BLAME 'RUTH SMITHS'

Pedagogues Dislike to Be Called 'Miss 6500,' They Say In Venting Ire

The itinerant foreign ditch digger has nothing on the modern school teacher in California. They're all numbered now. Yep, fact. Instead of saying, "Oh, Miss Smith, please step forward and get your pay-check," officials of the board of education will soon be able to cry: "Right this way, Number 6500. Here's your stipend for the current month. Next, Number 'steener-hunder-an-steen!'"

You see, it's this way: The records show that there are eleven Ruth Smiths in the files of the state board of education, to say nothing of many other similar duplications.

Would Avoid Confusion

Confusion! This won't do, at all. So, with the object of simplifying the matter of correspondence and preventing a merry little jamboree in the records of persons bearing the same and similar names, the state board of education is going to tag 'em. Thirty thousand school teachers will be numbered, army style.

This system, it was declared, will prove particularly valuable in identifying payments made to retired teachers and in otherwise keeping track of those paying into the retirement fund.

Teachers will be required to use their numbers in all official correspondence with the board. Ditto, when applying for credentials. So, there y'are—but what say the teachers?

"Just like a prison," said Miss Ruth Rowland, home economics department, Santa Ana high school; "well, I don't object to being numbered, for convenience, but I am not so keen for being called by a number. 'Here, 25, 644!' Sounds queer!"

One Is Neutral

Other high school teachers, commenting upon the plan, expressed themselves as follows:

Miss Laura Davis, biology department: "I am neutral on the subject. I believe numbers would be as aesthetic as most names, and I don't believe it makes much difference. I really don't care whether they call me Miss Davis or Number 6500."

Hint Lookstep

Miss Minna Mae Lewis, public speaking department: "Let them number all the ones who have similar names and leave the rest of us out. Let them number Ruth Smith, No. 1, and Ruth Smith, No. 2, and those of us who are fortunate to have individual names can continue to be known thereby."

Miss Mary Harris, librarian: "Do they want us to do the

TAKES PRIMA DONNA PART IN "ROBIN HOOD" THOUGH THREE KIDDIES REQUIRE MUCH TIME

"To rear a family and at the same time try to keep up with one's singing is no sinecure," Mrs. La Rue Mayer of Santa Ana, prima donna of "Robin Hood," which the Orange County Choral Union will present at the Yost theater here the nights of January 22 and 23, declared today.

"It is a problem," she went on laughingly, "to decide whether to choose the music or the children—but of course one just wouldn't give up the children for all the music in the world."

Mrs. Mayer, who is the proud mother of three charming children, the youngest of whom was born a year ago last Christmas day, finds it more than arduous to attend to the manifold duties of a household and also to be present at the three or more rehearsals that the choral union is holding each week.

Decides to Sing

"I found it a difficult matter to decide whether to take the part of Maid Marian in 'Robin Hood,' but once I made up my mind, the problem was to a large extent solved," she explained. "For if one once makes up one's mind to do a thing, the battle is virtually won."

Mrs. Mayer came to Santa Ana from her native state, Indiana, when she was 13 years old. She is a member of the choir of the First Christian church here, and has appeared in numerous amateur productions in this city, including "A Southern Flower," in which she played the leading part, and "Queen Esther," a cantata, in which she took an important part.

The well-balanced cast of principal roles selected for "Robin Hood," one of the big features of the choral union's production, executives of the organization declared.

Others Gain Fame.

Miss Kathleen Owens of Santa Ana, whose charm of appearance and voice have endeared her to hosts of theatergoers, will sing Annabelle the two nights that the opera is produced in Santa Ana, January 22 and 23.

The Dame Durdene of the piece, Mrs. A. E. Chapman of Santa Ana, is remembered for the clever work she did as the nurse to Little Arline in "The Bohemian Girl."

Lloyd Kennard, who is Will Scarlet, has an exceptional bass voice. He has had much experience in various cities of the Southland, singing in churches and directing choirs.

Choral union leaders are bestowing much praise on Miss Holly Lash, who will sing Alan-A-Dale for the exceptional work she is doing in assisting Ellis Rhodes as director. She has a fine voice, which her excellent musical training enables her to use to the best advantage.

Popular Soloists Included.

A rich baritone voice is that of Alfred W. Branch of Santa Ana, who plays Friar Tuck and who received his musical training in England. He has sung in Canada, the

QUARTETTES OF BIBLE CLASSES TO VIE HERE

Resolved to uphold the musical prestige of the home city, members of the Santa Ana Men's Bible class quartette today were holding final practice in preparation for the male quartette contest which will be one of the big features at the evening session of the fifth quarterly convention of the Federated Men's Bible Classes of Southern California, to be held in this city Thursday.

At least six classes in the Southland are expected to pit their prize musicians against the field, according to W. B. Martin of Santa Ana, federation president, who has charge of details for the convention.

Churches Open Doors

Santa Ana, Ontario, Fullerton and the First Christian church of Los Angeles Bible classes already have entered the contest and more are expected, Martin said.

Afternoon sessions of the convention, beginning at 3 o'clock, will be held at the First Christian church, convention headquarters. The rooms of five local churches will be utilized for the serving of a 6:30 o'clock banquet. Three hundred and fifty persons will be served at the First Christian church, 200 at the First Congregational church, 175 at the United Presbyterian church and 150 at the Spurgeon Memorial, South Methodist church.

The evening meeting will be held at the First Christian church.

POLY STUDENTS WALK CHALKED MERIT LINE

Citizenship System Calls
For Report of Conduct
Within, Outside Rooms

Santa Ana high school pupils, those who ever did, have quit chewing gum in their classrooms. They do not roughhouse in the halls.

They flock into their classes on time so that tardiness now is almost a thing of the past.

This does not mean that the ranks of Santa Ana's student army suddenly have become infested with an attack of "goodie-goodiness" or that the Poly flock has become full grown men and women.

It does mean, according to Principal D. K. Hammond and Vice-Principal W. M. Clayton, that the recently-introduced merit system has been given the acid test and has proved, thus far, a decided success.

Students May Appeal

Under the merit or citizenship system, pupils must account for their conduct both to the school and to their parents. At the beginning of the semester every student is given 100 merit points. For each misdemeanor he receives a demerit slip from the instructor. On every demerit slip the student has the privilege to appeal to Vice-Principal Clayton, who acts as supreme judge and who chalks each demerit mark against the permanent record of the person involved.

Such misdemeanors as tardiness, cutting class or assembly, misconduct in halls or classrooms, profanity, smoking, stealing, defacing school property, cheating and forgery result in demerit slips.

But 86 Tardy

The school's tardiness report for last week showed only 86 pupils were late for classes out of a possible 36,000 opportunities for tardiness.

"A majority of our students will complete the semester with a 100 per cent citizenship record," Principal Hammond said. "Each semester's merit or citizenship record is placed on the student's permanent record card. If a pupil receives demerits one semester and makes a perfect record the following term, he is granted ten extra merits for his perfect record which may be applied to erase the demerit marks."

Hammond declared that a perfect citizenship record is a permanent asset to a student while a bad record may be a distinct hindrance, in that privileges will not be granted students with numerous demerit marks.

Vice-Principal Clayton stated that the system has been accepted enthusiastically and its value has been recognized.

Compensation Told

At graduation the student who has a citizenship rating of 95 per cent or better will be given honorable mention for "Worthy Citizenship."

Students whose rating falls below 90 per cent shall be ineligible for the Honor society.

When the citizenship rating falls below 80 per cent the student will not be recommended to colleges or to business men by the office. In this case also the student must resign all student body offices or positions on teams.

If the rating falls below 70 per cent the student is suspended from school and may be reinstated only by agreement of better conduct.

CHART REVEALS RAIN APLenty IS POSSIBLE

Yes, we have no rain today. But that is no sign that this is going to be a dry year.

At least Lewis F. Moulton, farm operator at El Toro for nearly fifty years, today said that conditions so far are no criterion.

"We hear wails of a dry year by the dry-year pessimist," declared the El Toro farmer. "It is true we may never have more rain—but, again, it is possible we will."

And then he singled out the law of averages—an investigation of rain records kept by him for forty-seven years disclosed that in twenty-three years the rainfall to January 1 was less than three inches. The year 1924 is in that class.

Seasonal Average 10.99.

Starting with 1877, when only .03 of an inch had fallen prior to January 1, Moulton dug up the interesting information that the average to January 1 for the twenty-three years, including the 1924 season, was 1.71 inches, while for twenty-two of the twenty-three years the seasonal average was 10.99 inches.

"While the average of the years under consideration was 1.71 inches up to the first of the year, we had 2.35 inches up to the first of this month," continued the official man for El Toro. "Based on the law of averages, I say there is no ground for the declaration that we are going to have a dry year, because there is still possibility of the season developing into one of the wettest for many years past."

Here is the record for each season to January 1 for the past twenty-three years, and the precipitation for twenty-two years:

POPULARITY OF COUNTRY-WIDE THRIFT WEEK OBSERVANCE TOLD HERE

Man Lining Up 'Y' Share

Coming to Santa Ana

PROJECT TAKES STRIDE

10 Reasons Why Account
In Bank Should Be Boosted
Are Given Out Here

With bankers, builders, school executives and scores of others keenly interested in the movement, Thrift week will be observed widely in Santa Ana and Orange county beginning next Thursday, according to R. C. Smedley, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in this city.

"Santa Anans will be interested," said Smedley, "in a message sent west by John A. Goodell, secretary of the national thrift committee of the Y. M. C. A. Goodell, selected to head the campaign to be launched here late this month, to complete the 'Y' building fund, was largely instrumental in lining up the Y. M. C. A. workers for this year's national thrift campaign. He is now en route to the coast."

"National Thrift week is a movement which will receive country-wide recognition," says Goodell, in a final message to all thrift workers.

"Having just returned from a trip on behalf of thrift which covered six states of the Union, I cannot help but be impressed by the rapid strides toward prominence which this idea has taken in every hamlet, village and city that I visited."

"The country is ready for thrift week; people everywhere are eager to receive its message. President Coolidge has warmly endorsed the plan. The post office department will make a lively interest in spreading the message. Newspapers throughout the nation have given editorial attention to the idea."

Smedley today gave ten reasons why every man, woman and child should have a bank account. He said:

Here Is List

"Checking account enables you to pay your accounts in a business way."

"Your cancelled checks are receipts for bills paid."

"Doing business with a bank increases your credit and financial standing."

"A bank pays interests on savings deposits."

"Your money is safe in a bank."

"A banker will give reliable advice on investments."

"A bank is a safe place to leave valuables and important papers."

"Doing business with a bank encourages you to save more."

"A bank tends to increase confidence in yourself."

"Your savings bank deposits invested by the banker in industrial advancement directly contributes to the country's prosperity."

CHASE OVER ROOFS NOT MOVIE STUNT

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 15.—"It's rather early to be out making pictures, but these dub comedians have to work pretty hard to get along. It's too bad they don't get some new stuff, though."

This was the comment of the few on the boulevard who shortly after daylight today saw a comedy bandit being chased by three film policemen across the roofs of several stores.

Only he wasn't, and they weren't. James Purcell, 30, surprised by Policeman Burg in the act of studying the combination of the safe in a Hollywood hardware store, scuttled through the skylight and dashed over the housetops, pursued by the policeman and two aides.

When the suspect, according to Policeman Burg, started to draw a gun, the officer fired first, and Purcell sank down with a bullet in his leg.

Finds $50 in Old Money In Stump

VENTURA, Jan. 15.—F. W. Barron, ex-Canadian soldier, is willing today to believe that there is a Santa Claus and that fairy stories are not altogether impossible.

Barron, who is suffering from "trench feet" was chopping down an old pepper tree in the rear of the home of the Rev. T. M. Patterson to help the local American Legion men who are building him a home. When the tree fell he found in a knot hole a roll of bills of the date of 1841, totaling $50.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOR- EVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every Druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full bottle of Allenru, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the tortments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. ## BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take liquids. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" cloudy brain and "perk up" the spirit. 15c and 50c.

TAX BATTLE IS GREATEST IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The tax fight of 1924 is rapidly becoming the biggest political as well as the principal legislative issue of the year.

The Republican and Democratic National committees, the cabinet and all the leaders in Congress have been drawn into it.

And in spite of the fact that they all agree tax reduction ought to be accomplished, so bitter has the struggle become that there is danger there will be no tax reduction at all this session.

This is because many Democrats and some Progressives in congress deem it their duty to defeat Secretary Mellon's tax program at any cost. They hold it would be better to let taxes stay where they are, rather than accept the Mellon principle, which they claim constitutes an unjust discrimination in favor of big incomes.

President Coolidge, though he has said he will not use a big stick to get Congress to legislate, is demanding there shall be tax reduction. He has impressed upon the administration's chief lieutenants his belief that failure to cut taxes would be inexcusable and impossible to explain to the country.

The situation today is this: Congress has before it three tax plans, viz:

Secretary Mellon's, which is the administration's; Representative Garner's the Democratic plan, and Representative Frear's, the Progressive plan.

Mr. Mellon's plan is based on the theory that the tax which will produce the greatest revenue and at the same time induce those possessing capital to put it into business, rather than retire it into tax free securities, is the wisest economic policy.

Mr. Garner's is based on the theory that tax reduction should mean the biggest possible reduction to the mass of taxpayers and make up the loss of revenue by hitting big incomes.

Mr. Frear's is similar to Mr. Garner's, with the addition of an excess profits tax, to get at the profits of "big business."

The three-cornered controversy hinges primarily upon Mr. Mellon's proposal to cut sur-taxes on big incomes to 25 per cent. They are now 50 per cent.

Should Be First

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Tax legislation should take precedence over all other, in the opinion of President Coolidge, a White House spokesman said.

The President believes Representative Longworth's plan to dispossess of the tax bill immediately would have a beneficial effect on this country.

Later, when Miss Loomis essayed screen work, she was so eminently successful that she quickly forgot all about prancing about the stage in filmy Grecian attire.

GREAT SCREEN ATHLETE IN CAST OF "RENO"

One of the three greatest athletes on the screen, and one of the greatest long-distance swimmers in America, is George Walsh, who recently signed a long term contract with the Goldwyn Pictures corporation. He plays a leading role in the new Rupert Hughes picture on divorce, "Reno," which is the current attraction at the West End theater.

Walsh has had a varied career both as athlete and actor. He is a graduate of Fordham and of Georgetown university, where he was one of the leading athletes in this university that has long been noted for athletics.

It is the most natural thing in the world that Walsh should have two close friends in such athletes as Douglas Fairbanks and Jack Dempsey. Fairbanks and Walsh in particular have spent many hours together in practicing feats of agility and strength. Jack Dempsey regards Walsh as the greatest boxer among screen actors. His prowess in boxing is put to a severe test in the hand-to-hand struggle with Lew Cody on the edge of the "Giant Geyser" of Yellowstone Park in "Reno." The fight is difficult and spectacular in the extreme.

HOBBO KING IS ODD VISITOR AT MISSION

Movie Actress Entertains
Him At Capistrano; Car
Looks Like Museum

SANTA ANA, Jan. 15.—In the historic garden of the Mission San Juan Capistrano a queen of the movie world played the hostess to the king of the hobo realm.

The queen was present in the person of Mae Murray, while her guest was Jeff Davis, "king of the hoboes" who is in Southern California singing the swan song of his itinerant calling.

Circled Globe Six Times
Jeff told Miss Murray, who is being directed in her present picture by her husband, Robert Z. Leonard, of his wanderings in the six years he has belted the globe. The other members of the company and the extras gathered around his 1916 touring car, which was covered with pennants, chalk signs and curios.

On the hood of the car was a steers' petrified skull, picked up on the wastes of the Arizona desert. Rattlesnake skins adorned the sides of the automobile. A stuffed gila monster gaped from the windshield. Coyote, badger and skunk hides swung from the frame. "Chico," otherwise the "Arizona Kid," a coyote-Shepherd pup, bared friendly incisors and wagged a welcome.

In the party were George McFee of Baltimore, grand vizier of the wheel, or chauffeur; John M. Reincke of San Diego, a photographer, jaunting for his health, and Lawrence Elliott, 18 years old, orphan and mechanic.

Succeeded "A-No. 1."
Jeff Davis is the outstanding character of Hobodom. In twenty-seven years of wandering he has covered 850,000 miles by freight car and ship. The present motor journey, he told Miss Murray, has progressed 11,000 miles so far. King Jeff succeeded to the throne fourteen years ago at the abdication of the famous "A-No. 1" whose real name was Leon Ray Livingston.

Jeff was barred from enlistment by heart trouble. He was made a member of the Mayor's Committee of National Defense, New York, and raised large sums in the Liberty Loan drive. He aided recruiting. He spoke before Rotarians and chambers of commerce and before society organizations. Miss Helen Frick introduced him to the "Four Hundred." He posed for photographs with Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Oliver Harriman. Royal S. Copeland, when Health Commissioner of New York City, appointed him health inspector during the "flu" epidemic. He aided the Red Cross campaigns.

"The era of the hobo has changed, since the war," said King Jeff, sorting out newspaper clippings telling how he was banqueted by the Union League club of New York, how he was the guest for two days of Gov. Hunt of Arizona, and how he begged a handout at President Harding's back door in 1922, and how President Taft inspired his plea for a national highway, San Francisco to New York.

"Yes, the old days have changed, and I now speak in schools as a lecturer on anti-hobbing. A hobo will work, a tramp won't work, and a bum couldn't work if he wanted to. People have become more economizing. They no longer throw food recklessly into the garbage can. They are still generous, but more unbending to the nonworker. The 'shacks' (brake-men) are meaner than hell. I know of several cases recently where they shot young fellows who were stealing rides in box cars."

FULLERTON MAY GET FACTORY FROM EAST

Chamber Secretary Offers
Industrial Tract As Building Site

FULLERTON, Jan. 15.—Negotiations are in process for the location of a manufacturing plant for a large Eastern concern, one of the largest in the country, on the city's industrial tract, according to announcement this afternoon by Secretary George A. Raymer of the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce.

Prospects Bright
While the plans are not yet rounded out, the prospect of Fullerton securing this great manufacturing enterprise looks rosy, it is stated. The nature of the proposed plant for the principal movers in the project were not revealed in the intimation given today.

However, the negotiations have reached such a promising stage that Secretary Raymer has been spending the past two days in Los Angeles looking up freight rates and getting information on transportation matters in behalf of the concern.

Figures Given
It is stated in this connection that the plant would require the shipment of 80 carloads of machinery from the East as equipment and that the supply of material needed for the factory would run to 2000 tons a month, while the outgoing shipments would aggregate 1000 tons a month.

Wintersburg-Smeltzer

WINTERSBURG & SMELTZER, Jan. 15.—Filling to capacity the funeral chapel of Smith and Tuttle, friends and relatives of Mrs. Bessie Culver of Smeltzer gathered to pay their last respects on Monday afternoon when the services were conducted at two o'clock.

Amid the surroundings of beautiful flowers, woven into artistic pieces and embedding the casket of softest gray the Rev. W. T. Ward, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Westminster spoke of the life and death of the deceased.

Mrs. Culver was born in Storey county, Iowa, in 1873, and died January 12, 1924, aged 41 years, 3 months and 9 days, at her home at Smeltzer, following an illness of two weeks.

Mrs. Culver was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck and with her parents came to California when two years of age. In 1895 she was married to J. W. Culver, and to them five children were born. They are, Mrs. Myrtle Culver of Wintersburg, Mrs. Lorena Giesler of Greenville, Miss Ethelene, Warren and Dorothy of the home and with them and the bereaved husband are left to mourn her passing, four brothers, John, Sherman, Elsworth and Charles.

Rev. J. Scott Willmarth of the Methodist church of Wintersburg assisted in the chapel service, offering the opening prayer and giving the scripture reading.

"Saved by Grace," and "Home of the Soul," were beautifully sung as duets by Mrs. J. Scott Willmarth of Wintersburg and Mrs. E. A. Jones of Smeltzer. Pallbearers were, all but one, friends of Mrs. Culver's youth, Hensler Larter, Ed. Larter, George, Finley, Ed. Finley, Fred Mallett, and Thos. Hosack. Interment took place in Fairhaven cemetery.

Mrs. Paul Duc and her mother have both been ill with influenza but are now convalescing.

The latest word received by Mrs. Maynard Benteley from her husband who has been at Ventura for several weeks where he was called by the illness of his father was to the effect that Mr. Benteley Sr. remained unimproved. He is suffering from tuberculosis of the bone and another operation on the limb had been necessary. Benteley's sister, Lois Benteley, was also in the hospital at the time of his writing, she having been operated upon for appendicitis that day.

Donald Woodington was ill with the prevailing influenza for a few days but is now fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lewis of Santa Ana were over night guests Tuesday of the former's son, Wilfred Lewis and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. David Russell and family motored to Santa Ana Wednesday evening and taking lunch along surprised Mrs. Russell's nephew, Roy Hurst whose birthday anniversary it was.

TUSTIN STUDENTS SAVE $1269 THROUGH OPERATION OF CAMPAIGN FOR SAVING; BANK CO-OPERATES BY SELLING STAMPS

TUSTIN, Jan. 15.—A total of $1269 has been saved by the students of the local grammar school during the past year. It was shown by a report made to the local grammar school Parent-Teachers' association here recently by School Superintendent C. A. Weise, and C. A. Vance, cashier of the local bank who started the "penny saving plan."

The students are sold the penny stamps and also stamps of larger denomination at the grammar school. When they have accumulated one dollar in stamps, they deposit them in the bank. The stamps are furnished to the school by the bank.

The total amount saved by the 400 students of the school makes an average saving of nearly $3 per student for the year.

It was also decided to hold a Colonial Tea sometime in February, at the regular meeting of the P. T. A. last week. The tea will be one of the events of the spring. The teachers of the primary department are laying plans to sell home-made candy at the meeting to purchase a phonograph for the kindergarten department.

A committee to attend to the arranging of the date and other matters pertaining to the tea was appointed by Mrs. Charles Bowman, president. Mrs. F. T. Preble, chairman, Mrs. L. E. Allen, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Roland Stearns, Mrs. Torrens, and Mrs. J. F. Marshall are on the tea committee, with Mrs. John Sauer and Mrs. C. Kirk on the program committee.

E. B. Sprague of Santa Ana gave the talk of the day at the recent meeting. He spoke on "Thrifty." Several other numbers were also presented by the students of the primary department.

Out of 245 ballots cast Coolidge polled 154. Henry Ford, who has withdrawn from the race in favor of the Massachusetts leader, ran second, with 33 votes; Hiram was a poor third with 21; McAdoo, the Democratic candidate, got 18, and 15 were scattering.

Local Coolidge supporters, who have formed a Coolidge Republican Club of Orange county with more than 100 members enlisted, consider the results of the church poll as indicative of the solid Orange county movement that is swinging behind President Harding's successor.

CHILDREN GAIN IN WEIGHT BY USE OF MILK

Tustin P. T. A. Gives Out
Figures On Increase
Laid to Experiment

TUSTIN, Jan. 15.—An average gain of 12 1/2 per cent in weight has been shown by the pupils of the local kindergarten department since the inauguration of the drinking of milk at the morning recess, it was shown by statistics compiled by county school nurse, Miss Ames, and submitted to the local Parent Teachers Association last week.

The movement of feeding the children was taken up at the local primary school four months ago and according to both teachers and parents has proven a great success.

Mrs. Charles Bowman, president of the local Grammar School P. T. A., reports that at present the organization is serving milk to about ninety students with about twenty-five more of the children bringing the milk from home.

"The children would not bring the milk from home if the others did not drink milk also," she said. The children seem to take an added interest in school work and are brighter and more wide awake since the system has been adopted, say the teachers of the department.

The milk is served every morning in the yard of the school to the students. The morning recess is at 10:30 o'clock and each of the students is supplied with one half pint of milk, a straw, and several graham cookies.

The movement was fostered and backed by the P. T. A. of the grammar school because of the many children who brought money to school and spent it on candy and other sweets during the recess, and also because inspection by the county school nurse showed that several of the students were undernourished.

The children are said to be healthier and happier now than they were when eating candy at the recess period and also it has proven a great saving to the parents.

Since the inauguration of the plan here several other schools in the county have taken up the idea and it is understood that in Fullerton over 400 half pints of milk are served daily.

H. B. FIRE FIGHTING
APPARATUS RECEIVED

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 15.—The new equipment for fighting oil field fires has been received and workmen have been busy the past few days installing the tanks and other equipment on the old fire engine chassis.

The local fire department is now as well equipped for fighting fires as any city in Southern California, according to statements made by J. K. Sargent, driver of the truck and lieutenant of the local fire department.

One large truck with equipment and engines for pumping water and chemicals is sufficient to put out any blaze that could get started in the city, it is claimed, and with the added protection that the new chemical Foamite tanks will provide the department is well equipped to take care of all fires efficiently.

The new equipment was recently ordered by the local city council and was received several days ago. Work on the truck is nearly finished, it was stated today. Two forty-gallon Foamite tanks and two two and one-half gallon tanks are also included on the truck.

Heavy fire coats were also included in the order and the men will put them in use at the next fire.

MEMBERS SOUGHT
ORANGE, Jan. 15.—In an effort to bring the membership to the highest notch, the Villa Park farm center today launched a membership drive that will last throughout the week. With C. G. Caldwell as chairman and Leon O. Whitwell as campaign adviser, eight membership teams took the field.

Spraying Time for Dormant Trees

This is a good time of the year to spray deciduous trees. For a general cleansing spray Lime Sulphur is very good. For Curly Leaf on peaches use either Lime Sulphur or Bordeaux Mixture. Call your County Horticultural Commissioner or Farm Advisor if you have any difficulty in determining your trouble and what to do for it.

For scale on deciduous trees distillate mixtures are especially good when used with care. For scale on citrus we have Orange Oil and Rosin with whale oil soap.

For Aphis (plant lice) use "Black 40" or 40% Nicotine, priced in sizes from 35c to $13.50.

For Scaly Bark and Gummosis on citrus trees, we carry a special silver-steel scraping knife. After the scraping is done, we recommend the painting with "Triple X" Creolineum. "Triple X" is also used by many of our best walnut growers to paint pruning cuts and tree surgical work.

For Grafting and budding work we handle the "No Crax" Grafting Wax and Paste—the finest goods on the market.

When in need of seeds of any kind—flower, vegetable or field—remember we have a very complete stock of fresh goods.

COAST CLUBS TO HEAR 'C' LOOP PLAN

Frank Kerwin Scheduled to Appear Before Magnates at Oakland

Frank Kerwin, secretary of the Managers' association and Los Angeles newspaperman, today was in Oakland prepared to go before Pacific Coast league magnates, now in session there, and lay before them plans for a proposed Class C professional baseball league in which Santa Ana would enter a club.

Before leaving for the Coast league confab, Kerwin declared he had assurances that his proposition would be given every consideration by President Harry Williams and the board of directors of the league.

Kerwin, it is understood, will ask for a working agreement between Coast league clubs and Santa Ana, San Diego, Glendale, Shell Oil company of Long Beach and Santele-Santa Monica, whom he is representing in the Northland.

Would Finance League. Should the coast magnates give approval to the plan it was believed that they would be willing to finance the league and in turn have the privilege of "farming" to their clubs promising young players they could not carry on their payroll throughout the season. They also would have the right to draft players considered ripe for Coast league company whom the individual clubs signed.

Whether the proposed Class C league really could obtain any rating from organized baseball seemed problematical here. Kerwin, when he addressed the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce directors last week with reference to the establishment of a baseball team here, said he was not sure a rating could be secured unless the teams were to play five games every week.

If the Coast magnates should heartily endorse the movement and be willing to back the "farming out" loop, the rating undoubtedly could be obtained. In that case, it was believed, the coasters would want their young players to work at least four times a week.

Play Three Games a Week. Should Kerwin be unsuccessful in his mission the league probably will be formed anyway but on a basis of three games a week, with one game on Saturday afternoon and two on Sunday afternoon.

While the Los Angeles representative was in the North, Alex Brownridge, W. H. Spurgeon Jr. and M. B. Wellington, members of the committee appointed by President L. G. Swales of the Chamber of Commerce, was busy engaged investigating possible sites for the location of a baseball park here.

This committee, Brownridge said, would be in a position to make a report to the Long Beach men, headed by Billy Feistner, who have signified their willingness to finance the plan.

Two sites are being given serious consideration, it was understood, and both would make ideal locations for parks.

Wills May Accept Rickard's Offers

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Offers made by Tex Rickard to Harry Wills for bouts with Luis Firpo and Jack Dempsey, said to total $300,000, have not been rejected and probably will be accepted, Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, said today.

Joe Benjamin, who pals around with Jack Dempsey, is scheduled to meet Johnny O'Donnell at the Vernon Coliseum tonight. O'Donnell won the last meeting on a decision, which stirred up a great hullabaloo.

FORMER BIG LEAGUE PITCHER PLANS TO ORGANIZE BOWLING LEAGUE HERE FEB. 1

With Harry L. Gaspar, former pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds, completing plans for the construction of a five-alley parlor at 310 1/2 North Broadway, indications today were that a bowling league, consisting of at least ten teams, would be in operation here before another month.

Concrete pits already have been laid and workmen are expected here from Los Angeles within a few days to begin building the floors for the alleys. Gaspar hopes to open his bowling business by February 1. He is now operating a billiard parlor at the location.

Numerous Santa Ana organizations already have signified their intention of entering squads in the struggle for the city championship, which will be one of the features of the opening month. The Santa Ana Commercial company, Southern Counties Gas company, Appleby Motor company, Santa Ana post office, Knights of Columbus, Santa Ana Foundry, Santa Ana Elks, Smart and Final

Thirteen Football Men Of Poly To Get Monograms

Thirteen Santa Ana high school football players will be given monograms this year, according to recommendations made to the board of control by Coach Ed Covington. These are scheduled to be acted on this week.

The players recommended by the Poly grid chief were Captain Ed Linsengard, Bill Luck, Charlie Wood, Clarence Smith, George Decker, Linsengard, Le Bard, Natland, Roy Le Bard, Albert Sheets, Henry Dungan, Dan Cook, Carl Lacy and Oscar Spencer.

Linsengard, Le Bard, Natland, Cook, Lacy, Wood, Luck and Dungan, all seniors, will be given the sweaters in which they played last fall.

Local Five Moves To Claremont For Tilt With Pomona

Coach Edward Covington and his Santa Ana high school basketball flock was to leave city late this afternoon for Claremont where tonight, in the Sagehen gymnasium, the local five will oppose the Pomona College varsity five in a practice game.

Covington was to take twelve men to the college court and all of them were to get a chance against the Sagehen quintette. While expecting defeat Covington figured the game against the collegians would put the Santa Ana men on edge for their first league game at Long Beach next Friday afternoon.

MAGNATES VOTE TO OPEN LEAGUE LATE

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 15.—Revision of the league constitution, discussion of the player limit and trading was to occupy the attention of the directors of the Pacific coast baseball league when they resume their session today.

The session opened yesterday and with the exception of adopting a schedule the directors did little but harmonize.

When the session broke up late yesterday afternoon and moved en masse over to Cal Ewing's feed, it was the "solid eight" and not the "little three" and "big five" that tucked napkins in their collars.

President Harry Williams, new wielder of the league's gavel, said immediately after his decision that he would restore harmony if he had to break a few heads to do it. All heads are intact.

The season will open April 8 this year, later than usual, Portland opening at San Francisco, Vernon at Sacramento, Oakland at Salt Lake, and Seattle at Los Angeles. The season closes October 12.

Fred Rivers of Portland, Oscar Retchow of Los Angeles, and Bill Lane of Salt Lake City, appointed members of the constitution committee, are expected to have their revised draft in shape today.

One of the chief revisions will be to deprive the league president of a vote.

Quite an argument is expected over the player limit. San Francisco, Vernon and Sacramento are opposed to reducing the limit from 25 to 20. The others feel that 20 is enough.

STAR SPITBALLERS SLIPPING

It is questionable if two of the greatest spitball pitchers in the game, Stanley Coveleskie of Cleveland and Urban Faber of Chicago, have much farther to go. Coveleskie had much trouble with his arm last year despite the fact that he was a very effective pitcher. He was out the last six weeks of the season, practically costing Cleveland second place in the race. Faber likewise was bothered late in the season with a sore hip.

TEN YEARS IN SANITARIUM FAILS TO DIM BRILLIANCY OF JACK McDERMOTT'S GOLF

BY JOE WILLIAMS

Years ago—it seems a generation—Jack McDermott, then a boyish black-haired youngster, barely out of his teens, stood at a banquet table in Philadelphia and pointed a stubby finger at Vardon and Ray, visiting British golfers, seated in adjacent chairs.

"You fellows think you are going to take the American championship back to England, but we're going to stop you."

Young McDermott smiled as he said these words. Vardon and Ray, fine sportsmen, smiled as they heard them. A day or so before the Philadelphia youngster, playing in an exhibition match, had beaten the great English pair in a soul-stirring struggle. It was the first time they had been outdistanced by an American.

McDermott, in the circumstances, seemed entitled to a moment of cockiness, a moment that lost any possible sting because of the obvious good humor underlying it. But some of the notables present preferred to interpret the American's airy mood as one of arrogance and much to do was made over the incident.

Held Up His Entry

The belief was allowed to spread that McDermott had insulted the Britishers, and officials of the United States Golf association even went so far as to hold up McDermott's entry in the national open that year pending an investigation. It was finally accepted, McDermott's jocular prophecy materialized. Neither Vardon nor Ray won. The title went to young O'Neil.

Ten years have passed since the history of that championship was written in vivid strokes against the beautiful Brookline landscape.

And as the years passed what became of McDermott, first home-bred ever to win our own championship?

For 10 years he has been in a sanatorium in Philadelphia, a nervous, mental wreck, brought on, his friends insist, by humiliation and a brooding fear that the world regarded him as a bad sportsman.

Back On Links

Now the shadows have lifted and Jack McDermott, looking strangely old for a man of 32, is back on the links in his home town, playing his favorite game and with the self-same clubs with which he won the national championship successively in 1911 and 1912, a feat no other professional has been able to duplicate since.

McDermott's first effort at competitive play recently found him playing almost even with par for nine holes over the long White-march course; to be exact he scored a 38. His tee shots and iron play were quite up to his old standard. Only on the greens did he falter. He putted nervously and with a jerky movement.

McDermott is back, back after 10 years in the darkness, and his friends are hoping that there is just one more miracle lying around the corner on which he can ride back to the scenes of his old triumphs and former grandeur.

Vote Support To Charley Paddock

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—Charles Paddock, Pasadena sprint champion, was last night voted the support of the Southern Pacific Association of the A. A. U. in his contest with the National A. A. U. organization.

The local group, in a resolution that was unanimously adopted, demanded that Paddock be reinstated in good standing "without further delay."

BOXING DOOMED AS RESULT OF JEROME FATALITY, BELIEF

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—With the introduction of two bills at Albany asking for the repeal of the boxing law and a third calling for investigation of the boxing law and a fourth calling for investigation of the boxing commission, general uneasiness for the future of the game is felt here as a result of the death of Frankie Jerome.

JULIA C. LATHROP COURT SQUADS WIN

Local Cage Teams In Twin Victory Over 2 Tustin High School Fives

BY DAVID ROBERTS

(Julia Lathrop J. H. S. Reporter)

The basketball teams representing the Julia C. Lathrop junior high school against two teams from the Tustin high school were both successful in that they each came out at the long end of two exceedingly lopsided scores. In the first game the first team swamped the Tustin Class "B" team to the tune of 33 to 12, while the 110-pound team of the locals took the Tustin team of the same classification into camp, 18 to 7.

The heavyweight casaba tossers mopped up the high school by spectacular teamwork and individual ability to shoot baskets. Coach Reel knows his business and his teams show it. Although the teamwork was the great feature, special mention should be made of the exceptional work done by Linton Hill.

The little fellow made 16 of the 33 points himself, and his teammates are all players of class.

Teams Show Up Well.

The 110-pound teams wrangled around until the verdict at the final whistle was 18 to 7 in the junior high's favor. The team showed up like a million dollars and the game was full of thrills. The Tustin team fought like they were a bunch of veterans but the Santa Ana aggregation was plainly superior.

The 110-pounders showed up very well against the local high school's Class "C" team in an argument a few days ago and although the Lathrop boys were doped to be outclassed severely, they managed to play with such persistence that they held the score down to 7 to 6 in favor of the high school.

The record for the Julia C. Lathrop teams to date follows: Corona 110, 6—Lathrop 110, 5. Corona heavy, 6—Lathrop 1st, 8. Willard 9th, 100, 21—Lathrop 8th, 100, 2. Willard 8th, 100, 6—Lathrop 9th, 100, 16. Tustin 110, 7—Lathrop 110, 13. Tustin 8th, 12—Lathrop 1st, 33. Santa Ana high, Class C, 7—Lathrop 110, 6.

Two victories over Huntington Beach. Won by Lathrop, 6. Lost, 3. Percent, 667.

WHAT WILL LANDIS DO? Pitcher Shocker of the St. Louis Browns, who has taken his dispute with Owner Ball of that club to Judge Landis, is confident that he will be declared a free agent by the high commissioner of baseball. In that case there will be a mad scramble for his services. He says he intends sticking to the American League.

NAME DECKER TO SKIPPER '24 TEAM

Covington Hopeful Despite Loss of Ten Veterans; Many Subs to Return

Although he will lose ten veterans who campaigned with him through the tough games of the fall of 1923, Ed Covington, Santa Ana high school grid chief, is far from discouraged with the prospects for a good season when the tankard season whisks around again next October.

Five lettermen, a likely looking bunch of candidates from the two junior high schools and a strong list of men who were substitutes last year should give Poly another formidable aggregation in 1924, Covington said today.

George Decker, the brilliant tackle who made the Poly first string his first season in fast company, has been named captain of the next Santa Ana eleven and Decker, popular with his teammates, should make an ideal skipper.

Injured at San Diego Decker was one of the best linemen in the Tri-County league until he suffered a broken collar bone at San Diego that put him on the bench for the rest of the season.

Clarence Smith, end; Ray Dawson, guard; Albert Sheets, tackle; and Oscar Spencer, halfback, are the other "S.A." men who will be eligible for the 1924 season. Those lost include Captain Ed Linsengard, Luck, Natland, Townsend, Williams, Le Bard, Dungan, Lacy, Wood and Cook.

Walter Wurster, John Planchon, Herb Meisinger, Lon McIntire, "Lefty" Hurd and Mac McElvain, all first string substitutes last year will be back and most of them should find regular berths.

Richter For Backfield Richter, a boy from Texas who displayed exceptional ability on defense toward the latter part of the season, is counted on to make a great fight for a backfield position as is "Red" Armstrong, who was ineligible last year. Moon, second team quarterback and Mitchell, tackle on the same eleven, are figured to make all the rest of the men hustle to keep their jobs. McDermott, who played in the 130-pound team's backfield, is accorded a great chance if he can gain some poundage this year for he is fast and hard to tackle.

Last fall Santa Ana had the toughest schedule of all the other squads in the Tri-County loop for Covington's cohorts ran up against the powerful Long Beach eleven, ultimate Southern California champions, in the first tilt.

Next year Poly will have its opponents at home Pasadena and San Diego and will travel to Long Beach, Whittier and Fullerton.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Battling Siki won an eight round decision from Young Norfolk, New Orleans heavyweight, here last night.

NEW YORK—Kid Williams, Baltimore, former world's bantam champion, won a twelve-round decision from Charlie Goodman, New York.

NEW YORK—Lew Hurley, New York bantamweight, won a six-round decision from Willie Darcy, New York. Hurley is under age and can box only six rounds in New York.

ORANGE COUNTY LEAGUE BASKETBALL MEN BEGIN CHAMPIONSHIP STRUGGLE FRIDAY

The Orange County Athletic league, composed of all high school teams in this section with the exception of Santa Ana and Fullerton which are grouped in the Tri-County association, will begin its annual scrap for the basketball championship Friday afternoon.

Teams from Orange, Anaheim, Tustin, Garden Grove, San Juan Capistrano and Huntington Beach will contest for the 1924 casaba crown and on opening day Anaheim, Garden Grove and Orange will be the home teams.

Orange, coached by Ray Price, is favored by most of the sharp dopsters to come through most of its games unscathed for the neighboring city had an exceptionally strong quintette last winter and the team this season is composed largely of veterans. Orange already this year has defeated Santa Ana in a practice melee.

Earl Murray's Tustin five is expected to furnish Price's outfit with considerable competition. The others are the dark horses but all are conceded to have a splendid chance for title honors.

A PUZZLE A DAY

Here is a little problem which can be solved without any knowledge of geometry; simply by careful concentration. The triangle is equilateral; that is, each side is exactly the same length. It can be divided into six smaller triangles, each of the same size. Can you do it?

Yesterday's answer: WTHRVPRFCTMNN? YCLVRLRGYMTLLMWHNN! The missing letter is "E." Properly distributed through the sentences above, the answer is revealed: "Were there ever perfect men? Ye clever clergymen, tell me when!"

For a Downright Good Investment

You Can't Beat

A Young Orange Grove

And Here's Why

Young orange groves are reasonable in price, you can get the very best sort of a grove at $1350 an acre. They are not "overpriced" in value. They have not been sold and resold and sold again, with a profit taken from them at each sale.

Price

Young Orange Groves increase in value faster than any other kind of local ranch property. For instance, a young grove that is 2 years old now will be paying a fair profit year after next and should be worth better than $2000 per acre; $5000 per acre when 6 years old and like other groves hereabouts worth from $3500 to $5000 when full bearing, and pay a profit of from $750 to $1000 per acre per year.

Future

At $1350 per acre these Young Orange Groves are the best investment in Orange County today and a home that is rarely surpassed in Southern California. "Cerro Villa" will surprise you. You ought to see it.

At "Cerro Villa"

On a little table, slightly above the valley floor between Orange and Olive. Because of its particular topographical location frost has never been known to "Cerro Villa" through over 50 years of observation.

The soil is fertile, ideal for oranges, the land is fully water stocked and piped, easily irrigated.

The acreage is planted to thirty two year old Valencia's. If you don't want to live on the property and care for it yourself we will care for it for you at a nominal fee.

Living conditions are ideal, the property directly adjoining the new Fairway Golf and Country Club. Wonderful view.

At $1350 per acre these Young Orange Groves are the best investment in Orange County today and a home that is rarely surpassed in Southern California. "Cerro Villa" will surprise you. You ought to see it.

EVENING SALUTATION

In every person look for what is good and strong; honor that; rejoice in it, and as you can, try to imitate it and your faults will drop off like dead leaves when their time comes. —John Ruskin.

LOCAL PRODUCTS AS GIFTS

A writer on business topics has been impressed with the fact that when he receives any kind of present from a California friend, it is quite likely to be a California product. This statement is substantiated at the Santa Ana post office which during the holidays sent away hundreds of parcels containing walnuts, walnut meats and dried and candied fruits.

That is a natural development, due not only to local patriotism in this state but to the fact that outsiders like typical California products. They are nearly always of good quality, thanks to intelligent methods of production and shipping, and are often unique, with an air of romance about them for Americans farther east.

California has no monopoly on this idea, for the same thing is done to a large extent by Washington, Oregon, Florida and various other states, in varying degree.

Why should it not be done by all states, and by all cities? There is no community in America, amounting to anything at all, which has not some local product which it ought to be proud of and which distant friends would appreciate all the more for getting it direct from its place of origin.

There is no better way to advertise home industry, mingling sound business with sentiment. And this reasoning applies to manufactured goods no less than products of the soil, mine or sea. It is a good way to emphasize the distinct character of a community and to spread the fame and prosperity of one's own town, state and section.

DRIVING OUT CRIMINALS

Various cities have started the year with a spectacular round-up of crooks and criminals. If they were doing it with a view to isolation or correction of the offenders and the purging of society in general, it would be an excellent thing for everybody. As it happens, they are interested only in purging their own communities, and don't care what they do to others. Their solution of the problem is merely to "drive out" the criminal and vicious. Whereupon the outcasts, having to go somewhere, simply go to other cities to continue their nefarious operations as best they may.

Clearly, the country as a whole gains little or nothing from merely herding undesirable around from city to city. Even the big cities, which do the most spectacular herding, as Philadelphia is doing now, seldom accomplish much for themselves as a class, because they do not work together. And if they did, the effect would be to dump all the excluded riff-raff on the smaller communities, which want them even less than the big ones do. This, indeed, is the tendency at present, and every big police drive in a sectional metropolis sends the predatory residents out to prey on the smaller cities of the section.

There is some good effect from this, no doubt, because criminals do not like to be driven around much more than honest people do, and the driving may discourage the faint-hearted among them and impel them to live a better life. But obviously the plan will not work with real effectiveness unless all the cities of the country, big and little, secure effective co-operation.

We are still far from co-operation. Wherefore the best way is for every community to stop passing the buck and deal effectively and finally with its own criminals, shutting up the worst ones and adopting milder methods for those not incorrigible.

MODERN PRAIRIE SCHOONER

The real "prairie schooner" lives only in western pioneer stories, and in such works of the film's art "The Covered Wagon." An interesting modification of that equipage is about to set sail from Ohio to California. It is a lineal descendant of the tented wagon, but might be termed more accurately a "land yacht."

Horses and oxen give way to a 50-horsepower engine. There are pneumatic tires instead of the steel tires that used to fall off as spokes loosened and rims shrank in the desert stretches. The vehicle is 28 feet long, built on a wide motor bus frame, with aluminum body and plate glass windows protected by bronze screens. It is a snug little ship on wheels, with roomy cabin, staterooms, gallery and lavatory and everything else needed for a long, comfortable voyage, including a radio set.

Before many years the western highways will probably be filled with such craft, big and little, traveling in both directions. It is a natural and obvious development of the motor car, for touring purposes.

PEACE AND THRIFT

The anniversary of Benjamin Franklin's birth, January 17, has come to be observed as the principal day of an annual "Thrift Week" during which the nation's attention is called to matters of private and public economy.

Benjamin Franklin is one of our national heroes worthy of a great deal of study. Kites and keys and lightning rods and wise sayings compose the average school child's knowledge of Franklin's usefulness. That he was one of the greatest diplomats this country has ever had is less common knowledge. Important as was his part in our War of Independence he was deeply interested in promoting peace. In 1792, when living in Paris, Franklin printed a pamphlet entitled "Conciliation of the Nations of Europe, as a Project for Perpetual Peace."

Consideration of this fact suggests the thought that perpetual peace and thrift are not at all unrelated subjects. Disarmament, such as has already been undertaken with regard to certain types of battleships, represents a very practical sort of thrift—and peace promotion—which the nations would do well to study further and expand to include the army and air services.

WHO WILL BE FIRST?

Foreign statesmen and foreign capitalists frequently put Americans to shame by their quicker recognition of profitable enterprises and their quicker action to set them going.

The British Columbian government is now giving active encouragement to the production of pig iron in that province. The resolution of the legislature to this effect was carried unanimously, indicating undivided support for the development of a great steel industry there. In a statement introducing the government bill, the minister of mines said:

"Experiments have been in progress for some time at the Northwest experiment station of the United States bureau of mines at Seattle which have a direct bearing on our problem in the matter of exploiting the magnesite ores of this province. These experiments have been going on for some years, and we have been keeping in close touch with their progress. The report is most encouraging. It indicates that a furnace has been designed capable of producing from magnesite iron ores a sponge iron readily convertible into pig iron at a cost per ton considerably below the local market quotations on pig iron. I am assured that this process has been found to be economically practicable."

The United States bureau of mines has been making the experiments. Our northwest has the same physical and geographical advantages for the location of steel plants and the production of this iron product that British Columbia has. Yet the first important step toward the establishment of a great industry in that region is taken by a foreign power. The American capitalists and state authorities who may some day be interested are indifferent at present.

TAX-REDUCTION FIRST

When Congress assembled in December, it was disposed to postpone tax-reduction and give precedence to the army bonus and certain other measures involving large expenditure. Since the holidays that plan has been changed, and taxation is given first place on the program.

This is the wise thing to do. Revenue measures logically come first, because money has to be raised before it can be spent, and there is no knowing how much there is going to be to spend until the system of taxation is established. Also, the public is far more interested in tax-reduction than in anything else before Congress, and would have no patience with any program that deferred action on that question.

The law-makers' vacation has been good for them, giving them a clearer idea of what the country wants. They know now that, collectively and individually, they are likely to stand or fall on the tax issue, and that the sooner they report and pass a satisfactory revenue bill the better it will be for their own fortunes.

Support the National Guard

San Francisco Chronicle
Our new State Adjutant-General, Richard E. Mittelstaedt, is beginning a movement to increase the California National Guard by a personnel of approximately 1600 officers and enlisted men. He desires that there shall be one unit in every community large enough to support one.

The reaction from war seems to have weakened the spirit of national defense. The younger men who feel themselves competent for commissions seem ready to take officers' training and the boys of school age have, as ever, the martial instinct. The mass of the young men do not seem to respond.

That is not right. Of course, the National Guard is no longer merely a rather ornamental organization, attractive to the girls, conspicuous in parades and picnics and with some superficial training in the school of the company.

As now trained the National Guardsman is a real trained fighter, beginning with a setting-up process which really hardens, and a physical training and instruction which fits him for strenuous work in peace or war.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

THE THREE AGES
We read in our early days about the seven ages of man. I can't just remember the definite periods off hand, but in thinking of that body of yours I can think of three definite periods.

The first is the age of fifteen in a boy, or thirteen in a girl, the age of puberty. The man and woman have emerged from childhood. The second is the mature age of twenty-five to twenty-seven, when men and women have reached their full maturity. They may grow stronger or weaker, but insofar as natural growth and development is concerned nature has completed her work.

You are then at your full growth and what happens thereafter is due to natural or inherited qualities of health, and what you develop for yourself.

And the third period is that of middle—about fifty. I have often thought how these three periods are fraught with dangers, and also with privileges.

That the boy and girl at puberty should be taught by parents about the transformation that has taken place in their bodies and its significance. The man and woman at twenty-five and twenty-seven should realize that they have reached the point of full maturity. If at this time they will take the ordinary thought as to food and exercise, they would avoid the embarrassing fat, and protruding abdomen that now ensues.

You see Nature is inquired building you up, and so your food now is not required for that purpose. If you continue to eat it, then it should be used up by work or exercise, or otherwise you will accumulate weight. And so from twenty-seven to fifty you are at your best—insofar as physical vigor is concerned.

And now the third stage—fifty years old.

Nature has maintained you well. You have been sensible as to diet and exercise. You have perhaps escaped any severe illness. What should be your program? Really no changes in one sense. You will still continue the care of your body by diet and exercise.

But your exercise now should not be competitive. It should be plenty of walking, or golf, and the slower more moderate forms of exercise. Because you feel strong don't go in for any endurance tests. Because you are still strong, don't try to show up some of the younger fellows half your age.

Because you are strong, don't imagine you are just as supple as you were at thirty. Your whole thought should be to preserve what you have acquired between your second and third periods. That health and that fair measure of strength will stay by you, if you eat less, exercise a little less, particularly along strenuous lines. Remember, you should be good for another thirty years of life, with ordinary care.

THE MAP

For some 'tis but a colored page,
A chart, a guide, a rule, a gauge,
That marks a country, mountain, hills;
And plains and towns and holds no thrills;
Just boundary lines and rivers, streams—
To me it is the gate of dreams.

I see beyond the thin traced line,
Beyond the colors that define
The limitations of some land
(Oh, only dreamers understand!)
And fancy takes me wide and far
Beneath adventure's guiding star.

Oh, I have traveled many ways,
And known the lure of foreign days;
But I am anchored, dangers past,
In one fair harbor here at last * * *
Yet, maps before me, still I roam
In dream beyond the haunts of home.

Your Income Tax

By the Bureau of Internal Revenue

INCOME TAX IN NUTSHELL

WHO? Single persons who had net income of $1,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more, and married couples who had net income of $2,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more must file returns.

WHEN? The filing period is from January 1 to March 15, 1924.

WHERE? Collector of internal revenue for the district in which the person lives or has his principal place of business.

HOW? Instructions on Form 1040A and Form 1040, also the law and regulations.

WHAT? Four per cent normal tax on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemption and credits for dependents. Eight per cent normal tax on balance of net income. Surtax from 1 per cent to 50 per cent on net incomes over $6,000 for the year 1923.

ARTICLE NO. 11.

To determine his net income a taxpayer must first compute his gross income. Regardless of the amount of net income, upon which the tax is assessed, a return is required of every individual whose gross income for 1923 was $5,000 or more. Gross income includes salaries, wages, and compensation for personal services rendered, and "gains, profits, and income from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, sales, or dealings in property real or personal, . . . or the transaction of any business carried on for profit, or gains or profits, and income derived from any source whatever." Net income is gross income less certain specified deductions for business expenses, losses, bad debts, contributions, etc.

Taxpayers may be divided into four general classes—the wage earner or salaried class, business, professional, and agricultural. All compensation for personal services received by a salaried person or wage earner is income, including salaries, commissions, bonuses, fees, pensions paid retired employees, and tips.

The gross income of the usual business consists of the gross profit on sales, together with income from investments and from incidental or outside operations or sources. The return must show the gross sales, purchases, and cost of goods sold. To reflect net income correctly in any business in which the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor, inventories are necessary at the beginning and end of each taxable year.

The lawyer, doctor, architect, author, dentist, clergyman, or other professional man must include all fees, salaries, and compensation for professional services.

The farmer is required to report as gross income all profits derived from the sale or exchange of farm products and livestock, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold. The fair market value of groceries or merchandise exchanged for farm products must be included, also profits from renting a farm on the crop-share basis, and the rental and sale of farm lands.

"Spirit, Mind and Body"

(With the beautiful Y. M. C. A. building nearing completion (at a cost, with furnishings, of at least $300,000), interest in Y. M. C. A. organization and work is increasing. And that its readers may be fully informed, the Register will publish under the heading of a series of articles setting forth the principles and policies of this great agency of social service.)

Powerful Combination For Good

The three words, "Spirit, Mind and Body," have been recognized for a long time as the motto of the Young Men's Christian Association. Its leaders have consistently maintained that a consecrated spirit, coupled with a trained mind, in a vigorous body, makes a powerful combination for good in the world.

The Y. M. C. A. is a child of the great Christian Church, an outgrowth of its work, founded and maintained by Christian men who believe in the practical application of Christian principles to daily life.

The Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. is in any way duplicate or compete with the work of the churches. It will constantly endeavor to supplement the work of the churches in all lines. Its equipment will be at the service of the churches, so far as can be arranged, for the furtherance of their activities for which they have not equipment in their own buildings.

Bible classes will be organized and maintained, both of an evangelistic nature, and for training for service. It is a Y. M. C. A. policy, however, that if a man can be led to join a church Bible class, that is better than getting him into a Y Bible class.

Religious meetings and services of various kinds will be arranged from time to time, as occasion may arise. Evangelistic meetings for men and for boys, training conferences for leaders, public meetings for inspiration along patriotic and good citizenship lines, and many other such events will be held.

Social gatherings under religious auspices and influences will be a part of the program, for attracting strangers and young people into acquaintance with the Christian people of the community. Personal work by individuals and by organized effort, will be emphasized.

Service for men who need special help will be rendered. The Y. M. C. A. is not primarily a rescue mission nor a relief home, and from the nature of its work, it cannot engage widely in charitable and relief work.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

NO. 22—COLD PEASE PORRIDGE HOT

"There is one person we must go to see before Mother Goose comes home, children," said Daddy Gander to the Twins, "and that is the Crooked Man."

"Where does he live?" asked Nick.

"At the corner of Crooked Land and Zig-Zag Street," answered Daddy. "And his house is so crooked that when you enter the front door you can see yourself coming out of the back door."

"Oh, Daddy Gander, I don't believe that," laughed Nancy.

"Well!" Daddy Gander shook his head. "Maybe it isn't quite so bad, but it's almost. Anyway, we have to go and see him and help him to clean house before Mother Goose comes home. He spills so many ashes out of his pipe it's dreadful, and his porch rugs get so dusty you could plant corn in them."

Pretty soon they arrived at the Crooked Man's house and went tattat on his crooked front door.

"Well, well, well!" the Crooked Man exclaimed. "I'm just as glad to see you as if you were Santa Claus. Thomas Stout and I were just having an argument and perhaps you can help us out."

"What was it about?" asked Daddy Gander, hanging his high hat on the crooked hatrack.

Nancy and Nick sat down on crooked little stools to listen.

"Thomas here says that the Man in the Moon couldn't possibly burn his mouth on pease porridge if it was cold," said the Crooked Man. "No more he could!" declared Mister Stout with a wag of his head. "It's ridiculous to speak of such a thing."

"Well, I argue," went on the Crooked Man, "that it could be stony cold and yet be full of pepper. And that would certainly burn his mouth. Or he may have put mustard in it—or chili-sauce or—"

"Tush! Tush!" interrupted Thomas. "There you go again, my friend! Chili-sauce would only make his mouth more chilly. How could he possibly burn his mouth on that?"

"Oh, pshaw! You can't argue at all!" said the Crooked Man.

"I know a riddle," said Nancy suddenly. "What can go down the chimney down and up the chimney up, or down the chimney up?"

"Well, they guessed everything, but nobody could get the right answer."

"An umbrella!" declared Nancy. "Everybody had forgotten about the Man in the Moon and whether he could or couldn't burn his mouth."

"I guess we'll be going!" said Daddy Gander.

And do you know it was half past nine that night before he remembered about helping the poor Crooked Man to clean his house.
